'GET PHYSICAL' THIS SATURDAY

PHOENIX - This is it! The yearly Fall fundraiser for the Arizona AIDS Fund Trust [AAFT]. This Saturday at Hotbods beginning at 10:00 p.m. and running all night until 8:30 a.m. will be a party to end all parties. The hottest in recorded music. The hottest in live entertainment. The hottest people and the hottest benefit in Arizona. AAFT Executive Director Bob Hegyi has made a promise that he will be one of the last dancers off the floor at 8:30 a.m. Sunday morning. We can only wonder if he means off the floor. Kidding aside, this benefit is the most important ones in the entire state. Monies raised here go directly to AIDS patients in our state of Arizona. Not to research, not to Washington or Atlanta. Not to New York or San Francisco - they stay right here in Arizona to help on a one-to-one basis, our own people who are stricken with this dread disease. The funds stay right here to help educate people about AIDS and its ramifications. They stay right here to benefit not only those present PWAs but for those unfortunate future PWAs.

AAFT holds only two major fundraisers each year - Spring and Fall. There are other smaller benefit shows throughout the year and all of those add up to a lot, but these two giant benefits are the most important. If you are unable to actually be present at 'Get Physical '85' you can still purchase a ticket at any of these locations and feel good that you have contributed to a cause that cannot be overstated as being cruical. Tickets at: Connection, Farrah's, Hotbods, New Moon Saloon, Rags, Trax and the AAFT office 5150 N. 7th St. all in Phoenix. In Tucson they may be purchased at the Graduate or Books Bros., Ltd. Tickets are $12 in advance or $15 at the door.

The hot music will be played by Stewart Barkal imported direct from the Probe in Los Angeles for this event. Also from the Probe, John Ford will be on the fantastic lighting system. As a special added attraction, AAFT is bringing Pink Glove recording artist Magda Dioni from San Francisco for a one show performance at 2:00 a.m. Ms. Dioni will be including her newest single "Dangerous," as well as her hit "When Will I See You Again?" in her peformance.

Get there early, stay until the dawn's early light, and know that you are helping your fellow, less-fortunate

Tucson AIDS Project Raffle And Benefit Show

TUCSON - The 'Really Big' benefit show of the fall season is being planned for the Tucson AIDS Project [TAP]. Produced by Natalie Perry and Eddie Florez the show is growing by leaps and bounds. The performance is set for Sunday, October 6 at Rumor Hazzit at 9:00 p.m. prompt. Scheduled to appear in the show are Monte-Jon; Linda Fizdale, Bruce Rhea, Brian Mickens, Aviva Diamond, Eddie Florez, Jason Mallonee, Rick Dillon and P.J. Flying in from Phoenix to appear are JoAnne and Ebony to add to the evening of truly great entertainment.

The benefit was originally planned for the Tucson Alternatie Lifestyle Health Association [TALHA], the Gay men's clinic, but because TALHA receives some funding from the Pima Country Health Department, it was felt that TAP needed the funds more urgently.

There will be a complimentary Buffet prior to the benefit show from 7 until 9 p.m. Several of the doctors from both TALHA and TAP will be present at the Buffet. It is a good opportunity to meet those of the local medical profession who are actively working on health problems facing the Gay and Lesbian community.

Reservations are urged as seating is limited. A donation of $3.00 will be requested with seating reservations in advance.

During the show, a ceramic vessel graciously donated by noted Tucson artist Kevin Osborne will be raffled. This vessel is 1'7" tall and 24" in diameter. It was moved from the Tucson Museum of Art where it was displayed for sale and has been appraised at $1,100. The vessel is currently on display at Books Bros. Ltd., 3242 E. Speedway.

Other pieces of Mr. Osborn's work are seen at the Ventana Resort, Janos' Restaurant in the art museum plaza downtown, in the Williams Centre on Broadway and in some of the finest galleries from coast to coast.

The TAP fundraising committee is sponsoring this raffle. Tickets are on sale at Books Bros., Antigone Books, Bentley's House of Coffee and Tea and Rumor Hazzit [Eddie Florez]. In Phoenix they may be purchased at Stixx, The Arizona AIDS Fund Trust office or at J.R.'s in Scottsdale. Tickets are $10 per chance or 3 for $25 and they are tax deductible.

Mobilization Against AIDS Forms Phoenix Chapter

PHOENIX - Mobilization Against AIDS, a national organization is in the process of forming a Phoenix chapter. The first public meeting is scheduled for Monday, Sept. 23 at 7:30 p.m. at The Covenant Presbyterian Church, 1210 East Virginia Avenue.

Contact person Kimberly Webster, said, "Mobilization is NOT a client services organization. Our goals are information dissemination, public education and political actions which protect our civil rights as they are threatened by the AIDS crisis."

"We want AIDS activists who won't take no for an answer," Webster continued. Our national government's response to AIDS has been No to a national AIDS prevention Education program. No to increases in funding for AIDS research. No to adequate patient services for PWAs'. No to making available drugs which might prove effective. No to civil rights guarantees for PWAs' or other high risk groups," said Webster.

"This is a national disgrace which is killing our people. We're not going to accept it. And neither should you," said Timmer Kennell, co-coordinator of Mobilization with Kimberly Webster. "We've organized worldwide memorials in support of People with AIDS in 40 cities on four continents. We've sent a delegation to Washington D.C. to confront Congress and the Administration and we're going back. We're conducting an ongoing Petition drive in 30 states with a goal of one million signatures. We're conducting pickets, AIDS Zaps and other actions regularly."

"There's a lot to do. Please join us," said Kennell. Contact Mobilization Against AIDS, Phoenix, by calling 956-8681 or 968-3778 or write P.O. Box 44573, Phoenix, Arizona 85064.

TAP Orientation Meeting

TUCSON - There will be a special orientation and information meeting of the Tucson AIDS Project [TAP] this Thursday evening, Sept. 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the University Medical Center, Dining Room 'C'. Hudson To Miss Benefit

LOS ANGELES, CA (AP) - AIDS-stricken actor Rock Hudson has been resting at home since his release fom a hospital two weeks ago, but cannot go out and will miss a celebrity dinner to raise money to fight AIDS, a spokesman said. "He's doing fine and he's resting," Dale Olson said. "He's not really seeing anybody."

Hudson has not left his Beverly Hills mansion since he left the UCLA Medical Center Aug. 24 and won't attend the Sept. 19 Hollywood benefit for the AIDS fight, Olson said. "He's not able to go out," he said.

The benefit, featuring appearances by actresses Elizabeth Taylor, Shirley MacLaine and others, took on added meaning from what many called Hudson's courageous acknowledgement that he has acquired immune deficiency syndrome.

Hudson, who turns 60 on Nov. 17, entered UCLA July 20 in serious condition. When he left, a hospital spokesman said his condition was fair. Hudson was treated for incurable AIDS for six weeks in Paris with HPA-23, an experimental drug not available in the United States. He is too weak to receive further treatments.

GREAT OUTDOORS OUTING SEPT. 14 & 15

TUCSON - Great Outdoors is planning a carcamp at Rustler Park in the Chiricahua Mountains this weekend, September 14 and 15. The campground is located in a cool meadow surrounded by tall firs and pines at nearly 9000 feet elevation.

The extensive Chiricahua Crest trail system invites exploration of other meadows nearby or hikes to several peaks and overlooks within five miles of the campsite. The short walk up to Barfoot Mountain Lookout or a stroll along the ridge affords one sweeping views into New Mexico on the East and the basins and ranges of Cochise Country on the West. The days should still be sunny and warm to contrast the brisk autumn nights. The views, the scent of the firs and the rare mountain air add up to an incomparable high, while the chill of the nights punctuated by a myriad of stars you can reach up and touch offer instant relief at the end of a desert summer. After hearing some of the finest acts in the state, the judges chose Dena Kaye to represent Texas at the National Finals.

NGTF'S JEFF LEVI IN TUCSON APPEARANCE

FRED DOTY SHOW AT GRADUATE SEPT. 19

TUCSON - Fred Doty made a lot of friends when he came through Tucson in late July to play at Colette's West and the Graduate. Fred is a country/western singer with a great voice who sings some of his own arrangements and also the songs of the top singers in the country. His talent is recognized by an ever expanding network of fans.

There is a move underway to send Fred to Nashville in October to the 'Talent Buyers Seminar' in October and for him to do a showcase there. There are two fundraising benefits scheduled in Fort Worth, Texas to raise funds for arrangements and transportation to Nashville. This is a big opportunity for Fred and if things work out and he hits as big as his fans believe, I am not sure that the Graduate or Colette's or any local pub will be able to afford him any longer - except, this talented performer is such a down-to-earth person that he would surely do just a couple for old times sake. For a Tribute to Country's Finest and an evening of good ole country/western music get out and see The Fred Doty Show at the Graduate next Thursday, Sept. 19.

Aviva Diamond Benefit Funtastic Success

Well, you could tell it was showtime at the Graduate last Sunday when you drove up and saw the U-Haul Dressing Room parked in front of the bar. As usual the place was packed and by evening's end it was solid bodies. Now, the Graduate is known for its good crowds for their shows, but this time it was different - the people came out in large numbers to lend their support for this evening's benefit show - to raise some money to offset the cost of sending Aviva Diemond to Indianapolis, Indiana to compete later this month in the National Miss Gay America Pageant. Aviva was first runner-up in the Miss Gay Arizona Pageant in July, which entitled her to enter the nationals.

The show was a gas. Hosted by Christi Lunden, it featured a rare appearance by the the ever-popular Miss Brenda Starr, with Stephanie Price, Jacqueleen de Savoi, Dominique Jeante' as well as the talents of Glenda LayGrande.

Aviva was in rare form for the evenings festivities giving her best to an appreciative audience. A highlight of the evening was when she was called to the stage by Graduate manager Roger, who proceeded to auction off the costume she had on as well as her jewelry and undergarments. Trouper that she is, Aviva went along with the surprise and, as one person said, "she hasn't shown that much skin on the stage ever!"

All of the performers were 'up' for this show to help their fellow performer achieve a goal. Aviva Diamond has always been one of the first to volunteer for a charitable project and this was the community's chance to reciprocate.

Several of the local clubs and businessmen were present to contribute to the 'cause' - TALL, SOS, TKD, Rita's and the Graduate to name a few. About $652 was collected for Aviva that night and although Aviva was unable to get a thank you note in this issue of OBSERVER, she thanks each and everyone who was present at the benefit for their outpouring of love and friendship.

To the performers, each and every one did a marvelous job with their costumes and production numbers. Each is to be congratulated for giving of their time for this very special evening. All in all it was a great time and everyone hopes that it will help get Aviva to Indianapolis, win the big prize and bring that honor to Tucson, where it belongs.

For anyone out there who didn't see Aviva Diamond's benefit show at the Graduate last Sunday, 'For Shame! For Shame! For Shame! You missed a really fun-filled, entertaining show. The idea behind the show was to raise money to send her to the Miss Gay America Pageant in Indianapolis. Someone was saying we only wanted enough money to buy her a one-way ticket, but they were only joking - I think. Once again, Aviva, it was a great show and good luck, bring the title to Tucson.

By this writing, the first night of the Rita's Rendezvous Bowling League will have finished their first night of regulation bowling. Who will end up in first place at the end, what will some of the new team names be and probably a lot of other really tacky questions can only be answered as time goes by. I'll keep you informed weekly with the results, that is if I can get the results from Penny in time. At last weeks formation meeting, Peter was elected President, I [Doc] was elected Vice President, and Penny again elected Secretary/Treasurer. The fee this year has been raised to $7 per night, offsetting the increase in line fees from the Fiesta Lanes. Bowling starts at 8:45 p.m. so this year, please, every one of the teams be on time.

Now on to the club news. This past weekend saw all three clubs, TKO - TALL and SOS having their monthly meetings. TALL's meeting highlight was elections of officers for the 1985-86 season [of fun and frolic]. Elected were Lee, President; IP [Dwane] Vice President; Mike W., Secretary/Treasurer and Glendor Lay Grande, Run Captain. Up and coming activities for TALL have some really interesting twists. One that's going to bring a new scene to Tucson will be a Full Moon Extravaganza Weekend. If you haven't seen one of these, let me tell you it can be very festive. More details on this one as I get them. TALL is planning their monthly Din-Din at the Graduate on Sept. 22. It is planned to be the same evening that SOS has another of their Bake Sales so there will be plenty of goodies (cakes, cookies etc.) for purchase. Also, with three different groups pulling this event off, I'm sure a large crowd will be on hand, so if you want some good food, cooked by TALL for their meal, and some really delicious baked goods, you better arrive early. Murray [TALL] has promised to have a poster up early this time announcing the times and menu.

I haven't heard what TKO has planned for the month of October, it's their annual Run to Albuquerque for the Hijo del Sol Hot Air Balloon Run. This year both HDS and MMNM are joining forces to co-host this weekend. Got hold of a TKO member if you would like to go along on this run. For more information on TKO activities for this month, see Bert behind the bar at Tramps on Thursday nights.

TBBS: Speaking of Bert, the next time you go to the bathroom at Tramps, Bert, maybe you should take your young, off the pool table, trick with you....A couple of Wednesdays ago, Mike W. was playing pool at Rumor Hazzit, but there were no pool balls on the table. I wonder who was using what pool stick?....[From the SOA Grand Canyon Run] I hear Ron W. never looked so good. How did he get that tan in N.D.?....A long standing image was shattered by the SOA - they had none other than Mr. Macho, Bill L., "Stop Leak", in drag wearing a rusty colored dress....Art K, I hear, looked like Cher. Let's see that on the bike at the truck stop....Roger B. was comparing Chery's fried eggs [chest] to his strength, saying his strength all went to his balls. Also speaking of Chery, the next time she is tending bar at the Graduate, ask her about the Maraicopa County Sheriff's station. Finally on Chery, she told me she enjoys reading my column in the bathroom. I'm glad I can help her get rid of some of that B.S. she flings... I'm not sure who Bill N. was talking about, but he said that between the two of them they have 6"....Dave was saying that Bill N. reminds him of a girl - big tits and no balls....Wayne was trying something different Saturday night, pulling Brenda Starr's socks up, not down....

That's it for this week, so everyone have a safe and enjoyable weekend.

Slight oversight on Jza Jza's part last time. Apologies to Stretch. Sorry 'bout that! Welcome home. Seems he barely made it back in one piece. Once he arrived at the airport in Virginia, he realized nobody went to pick him up. He almost didn't make it out of the airport. Someone had to pour him out of the bar. For shame, Mother!

Speaking about far away places, whatever happened to the Sister Sluts from Atlanta? We haven't heard Driscilla Doodle and Rutop Rack with the Doodle Rap. Cherries Jubilee and Cissy Day must still be enjoying their little love nest. Too much to write or what? Come on bitches, get the lead out. Le Far West still has the same mailing address. Even Stunt Malibu Christi was so depressed she went into hiding. She hasn't been seen for quite awhile now. Maybe she'll find some occasion to come out and maybe even do one of her fabulous shows.

Miss Mae and J.W. are still enjoying each others company. J.W. is somehow managing to keep Miss Mae from asking anyone to come up and see her sometime. However, Bisbee doesn't seem to be anywhere in the near future and the mountains were nice, right J.W.? Mae will eventually get that shirt, right J.W.?

Macho Man sure didn't stay home long. Off to San Diego for a little honeymoon. Was there a definite impression made there M. Man?

Miss Jane still seems to be happily married. Is she looking for another trip to Rio or elsewhere? How's your social calendar Jane?

Sir Laurence is out and about again after a minor interruption in his social life.

Longtime no see C.R. Rumor has it you're still happily married. Good, stay out of trouble and next time you invite someone to visit, stay home!

Never knew a restaurant could be cleared so quickly without a bomb scare or a fire. Well, maybe the place was torching a bit. A few girls went out for a pizza after Macho Man finished his little move. Miss Mae and Toasted Totie managed to clear the pizza place in a matter of minutes and didn't realize they had done it til J.W., Macho Man, Miss Ronda and Magic Fingers Madge had to pick each other up off the floor after listening to Totie complain that her hips were too wide for Miss Mae's dress. Maybe Totie should just stick to bearing children. Do you know how difficult it is to find size 13 pumps?

Looks like Blanche is a lost cause, right Totie?

Ronda Jons [not by choice] has been cellbate [whatever that means] lately. She also decided to jump on the wagon and hasn't fallen off yet. Good work Ronda!

CAMP TOWN RACES

Have you ever run into Gay persons who like to camp it up? We all have and do frequently run into that kind of behavior. A lot of it is done in a tongue-in-cheek kind of way, out with the guys. There are others, however, who are just getting started. Camping it up is their way of life. It doesn't matter where they are or with whom, Gay or non-Gay crowd. It seems some are hell-bent to flaunt it all for the non-Gay world to see.

What is the purpose in that? To show the non-Gay world that we are down to earth caring, humn beings who can be trusted to, for instance, teach their children and to conduct ourselves in a responsible manner? If t[illegible] is the purpose, it surely falls s[illegible]t. What it does do is cement down for middle class America their own preconceived notions that they had about us in the first place. I don't think that is what any Gay person really wants to have happen/.

An obviously Gay person [because of their camping it up manner] is walking through the Mall. A few people make some joke about the person. The person, however, can't let it pass and bellows some crude remark, of course by this time he has everyone's attention. The Gay person complains, "But I want people to accept me, I don't have to put up with that ridicule." A person cries out for acceptance but goes about it in a manner that will only get ridicule in return. The problem in a confrontation like this is that usually both parties go away without learning anything. A person displaying obnoxious behavior of any kind is going to reap its woes. If any person is chided for having effeminate mannerisms, that is another item. The response then, should be one of tact, designed to get the other person to see how dangerous their stereotyping is, mission impossible.

Let's get back to the situation a[illegible]nd. The main lesson in this is fo[illegible]everyone to realize if we are to get middle class America to accept us, it will be through their getting to know a Gay person. A person gets to know you. They think you are an okay kind of person. You've proved in some way to them that they can trust you and respect you. Then comes th[illegible] day they find that you're a Gay person. In the initial shock, they will do a lot of soul searching. Comments like, "But he's such a good person, I would never have guessed, he's been so nice to us," abound.

When everything is hashed out, they come to the point of accepting you as a person who happens to be Gay. Maybe a person knows you're Gay to begin with. You can bet they'll be keeping their eye on you. Unbeknownst to you, they'll put you through a lot of tests. Yes, the day will come when they too will accept you for the person you are, who just happens to be Gay. Those people have a great effect on others. We need to have more, lots more of those people around to dispel the rumors and preconceived notions they've dreamed up. We need to actively cultivate the friendship of non-Gay persons so they can find out that we're people too.

[illegible] had a person, on hearing about my [illegible]eing Gay respond, "But he's a normal, stable person just like me." How true, how true.

Dear Blabby

DEAR BLABBY:

Recently a friend of mine pointed you out to me and told me about your column. Well, a week or so ago something happened to me that you could practically write a book about. It was just ghastly.

I had gone up to Phoenix for a short little vacation [I vacation as often as possible to take a break from all the work I do]. I spent most of the evening visiting the various nightclubs and by the time I was ready to leave the last one, I discovered that I was more than a bit tipsy. I got outside to my car, my brand new car mind you, and couldn't find my keys. Can you imagine? Well it was just ghastly. I looked everywhere, back in the bar, all over the ground, everywhere. No luck.

Well, being the smart cookie that I am, I happened to have a spare key stuck under the car. So, I crawled under the car to get it, (Which in my condition wasn't easy). I got back up and dusted myself off only to discover that I have rolled in grease and have it all over my white jeans. My designer jeans mine you. Well, can you imagine?... Well, it was ghastly. Grease on my designers.

After all this, guess what? I found my keys. Someone had taken my key chain, my Gucci key chain mind you, and left my keys. Well, it was ghastly, simply ghastly. Can you imagine? I had to take another vacation this week just to get over it. I mean, can you imagine?

signed, What A Story

P.S. I can't tell you how pleased I was to make your acquaintance.

Dear Miss Upsand -

Yes, I can imagine. I have a wonderful imagination, though this story leaves little to it.

NEWS FROM MCC TUCSON

This past Sunday was the celebration of "Rally Sunday" and it was great to see new faces and some familiar faces that we haven't seen for awhile. The pot-luck luncheon following the morning service was quite a treat. Overheard were many remarks that all meant one thing, "Who made that dish? I want the receipe!" The evening service was a musical service that was both spiritually rewarding and physically uplifting. Our congratulations to Kathy for her work in getting it all together and our thanks to all of the participants.

At our morning service the congregation welcomed two new members, Gregg and Terri Ann. Matthias was confirmed as our newest Deacon.

MCC/Tucson is planning two big sales this month with all proceeds going to the Building Fund. On Sunday, Sept. 22, a bake sale will be held at the Graduate beginning at 2:00 p.m. The Sisters of Sonora (SOS) will be contributing to this sale. Plan now to attend this Fundraiser and purchase the goodies that you would never bake for yourself. Yes, Doc, there will be banana bread.

Our second sale this month will be a Yard Sale held on the parking lot at Rita's Rendezvous. This will be on Saturday, Sept. 28 from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. Drive by and look around - you never know just what might be there that you can't live without.

Coming in October, we will have a celebrity in town. This dynamic personality will be here for our "Three Days In Octrober" festivities. More details will be announced.

A View From Within

by Christopher Geoffrey McPherson

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU

I have often encouraged my readers and others to write letters to newspapers and television stations whenever they see something which portrays Gays and Lesbians unfairly. I also have suggested the use of letter writing to praise the media whenever they do something good for our community.

Here again, I ask your help.

On 25 August, the NBC affiliate in Phoenix aired a 30-minute, locally produced show, which gave two Gay organizations the opportunity to address the television viewers. KPNX provided a whole half-hour public affairs program to be shared by the Lesbian and Gay Community Switchboard, and the Arizona AIDS Fund Trust in order to publicize the upcoming AIDS Benefit ["Get Physical" benefit which is this Saturday, 14 September] and inform the public about these two organizations.

I think we should thank KPNX-12 for their help. Please write to them at KPNX, P.O. Box 711, Phoenix AZ 85001, Attention: Mr. C.E. Cooney, Station Manager.

Secondly, a local radio station provided an hour segment devoted to the Lesbian and Gay Community Switchboard and the Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays organizations, to discuss what these two organizations do to assist the Gay and Lesbian community, and those others who may be involved.

The show was very helpful and, again, I believe we all should thank them. You may write to Radio Station KFYI, 631 North 1st Avenue, Phoenix, AZ 85003.

* * * * * * * * * * *

I can hear some of you asking why should you write to these stations? I can tell you why. Even though many of you in Tucson may not have had the opportunity to watch or hear these programs, and many people in Phoenix and the surrounding agrees may have missed them also, the programs helped to educate the community at large about the truths behind AIDS, homosexuality, and many other important areas.

Granted, we are only speaking here of one and one-half hours of education against hundreds of hours of prejudice, but the time we are getting from the media is growing and growing as each year passes. The only reason these stations give us more and more time is that they know we are listening and watching, and that we all appreciate the free air time we are getting.

And just how do these stations know? No, they are not psychic. They know because they receive letters from people like you and me telling them that we appreciate their help.

Simplicity at its very best.

If you think public awareness is important, as I know you all do, then please take the time to write a letter of thanks to these two stations. The person you help the most may just be yourself.

VOLLEYBALL, ICE CREAM AND DISCO

TUCSON - The Fall Volleyball League starts this Sunday, Sept. 15, at the Joshua Tree/Back Pocket. A full day of activities is planned to kick off the season. Teams and individuals will register at 1:00 p.m. which will be followed by an organizational meeting and practice matches.

At the same time, the Tucson Lesbian and Gay Pride Committee has organized an Ice Cream Social, "Make Your Own Sundae" as a fundraiser to pay for the expenses of the upcoming Political Forum. For a $2.00 donation, you can create your own sundae from a variety of ice cream flavors and various toppings. The Ice Cream Social starts at 1:00 p.m. and will close at 6:00 p.m.

At 5:00 p.m. the Disco will be open to the sounds of an afternoon of progressive music including Pops, Rock 'n Roll, Disco Classics and Mode Disco. Also at 5:00 p.m., Steak Dinners are available, barbecued to your satisfaction for $3.50

For the first time during the five years of the Volleyball League, the court has now been remodeled to regulation size. To accommodate this larger court, the fence has been moved back eight feet. It is also planned for the near future that the entire volleyball area will be covered with grass. The Lesbian and Gay volleyballers can thank Ed Puz, Jack Stockslager and Jay Rutledge who volunteered their time and labor and Bob Bishop for this major undertaking. Come on out this Sunday, Sept. 15, and join in on this afternoon of Volleyball, Ice Cream, Disco and Steak Dinner.

It's official. The documentary film, "The Times Of Harvey Milk," will be featured as part of a Political Forum scheduled for Saturday, October 19 at the Joshua Tree. Local and state politicians are invited to join us in viewing this award-winning film and afterwards discuss with us their views concerning political issues facing Tucson area Lesbians and Gays.

To offset the cost of renting this film, we are holding a fund-raising Ice Cream Social this Sunday, Sept. 15 from 1 to 6 p.m. at the Joshua Tree/Back Pocket in conjunction with the beginning of the fall volleyball season. For a $2.00 donation, you can create your own ice cream sundae from a variety of flavors and toppings.

We are also joining with the Tucson AIDS Project in purchasing condoms that will be free for the asking at area bars. It is our hope that after we purchase a few thousand to break the ice, that other Lesbian and Gay-oriented businesses and organizatinos will follow suit to keep a steady supply available. We are currently contacting medical supply companies and manufacturers for the best available price for quality condoms.

TLGPC will be publishing a quarterly newsletter to keep the community more informed of what we are doing and provide a better flow of informatin between organizations. It is also our hope to use the newsletter to educate the general [straight] community about our activities, issues, problems and life style. Individuals are welcome to submit articles and/or letters for publications to our address, P.O. Box 55141, Tucson, AZ 85703-5141.

We are in the final planning stages for our second Resource Guide. Paid advertising space will be offered to businesses at a minimal charge to cover the cost of printing. The guide will be available free of charge at bars, businesses and social agencies.

FALL VOLLEYBALL STARTS SUNDAY

by Jack Stockslager

The Fall Volleyball League starts this Sunday, Sept. 15 at 1:00 p.m. at the Joshua Tree court. This first day will be for organizing teams, establishing the rules for the league and practice matches. The court has been enlarged to regulation size to accomodate teams of six players. The league will be divided into two six week halves with the winners of each half playing for the championship. This is the fifth year that the league has existed. Both teams and individuals can register to play on the 15th.

We now have two bowling leagues. On Monday nights at 9:00 p.m. at the Cactus Lanes, the newly formed Joshua Tree League bowls. This past Monday was the bowling party and ten teams signed up. The league officially starts this coming Monday with the organizational meeting at 8:30 p.m. There is plenty of room for more bowlers.

On Wednesday nights at 9:00 p.m., the members of Rita's Rendezvous League bowls at Fiesta Lanes. They have already started league play but I understand there is room for more players there also.

The standings for both bowling leagues and the volleyball league will be published weekly in this section of the OBSERVER.
