Tucson Pride Week '88 plans firming up

TUCSON - The Tucson Lesbian/Gay Alliance (TLGA) has been meeting weekly formulating plans for this year's Lesbian/Gay Pride Week activities. Pride Week '88 runs from Sunday, June 19 through Sunday June 26. Departing slightly this year from the national theme of "Rightfully Proud" the Tucson group has adopted its own slogan "Remarkably Proud". T-Shirts will be on sale this weekend proclaiming this slogan. Proceeds from sale of these shirts is used to defray costs of producing the weeklong series of events.

Traditionally kicking off Pride Week '88 in Tucson is the Picnic in Himmel Park. It begins at Noon on Sunday, June 19 and continues until dusk. This will be the 11th Annual Picnic and prom-

There is no need to reserve space for booths or tables. Anyone can set up a table and it's on a first come, best space available basis. If you plan on selling merchandise (food, crafts, etc.) you must have a permit to sell. If you plan on an information or donation booth, no permit is necessary.

The City Parks and Recreation Department rules specify no liquor, no wine, no drugs, and no glass containers in any of its parks. These rules will be enforced by TLGA security as well as Park Security. Another rule that the Park has been stringent on this year specifies that all dogs must be on a leash.

Another important event will

Pima County HIV antibody testing update

TUCSON - Since the Pima County Health Department (PCHD) HIV antibody Counseling and Testing Clinic opened in April 1987, 1,357 people have been counseled, and of these, 1,269 have chosen to be tested. Of those tested, 51 (4%) have had positive test results. Clients of the clinic are not a representative sample of people living in Pima County, and the 4% rate does not indicate that 4% of the residents of Pima County are HIV antibody positive.

The waiting period is now two to three weeks for counseling and testing appointments at the clinic. The waiting period may be longer in June due to the national mailing of AIDS information by the Centers for Disease Control. Individuals receive extensive test counseling and the blood test at no charge. Results of the test and thorough post-test counseling can be obtained at the clinic two weeks after blood is drawn. Special consideration can be given in cases of extreme urgency. No results will be given by telephone or to third parties.

Individuals are not required to give a name to receive counseling and the blood test according to PCHD. Individuals are given a lab slip with an identification number, and this slip must be returned to the clinic when obtaining results. If the result is negative, the clinic counselor will not ask for a name. If the result is positive, the clinic counselor will ask for a name, address, date of birth and phone number (identification is not required). Test results, both positive and negative, are absolutely confidential. Pima County Health Department officials say.

The Tucson AIDS Project (TAP) offers a free walk-in HIV antibody test counseling clinic every Sunday from 7-9 p.m. at the TAP office for people who are considering being tested or who wish to discuss test results. If individuals provide written verification that they have received counseling at the TAP clinic, they can usually be worked into the Pima County testing schedule within a few days. Testing at the clinic is still by appointment only, even if counseling has been provided by TAP. TAP offices are located at 151 South Tucson Blvd, Suite 252.

Although contract negotiations with the State Health Department are not yet complete, PCHD is expecting to add two additional counselors to the clinic on July 1. The counselors will be available to both individuals making telephone appointments and clients of the PCHD Sexually Transmitted Disease Clinic. This should reduce the waiting period.

ACLU PROTECTS CONFIDENTIALITY OF HIV TEST RESULTS

KANSAS CITY, KS - The American Civil Liberties Union has obtained a temporary restraining order prohibiting a Kansas health maintenance organization (HMO) from divulging the results of a patient's HIV test to the patient's estranged wife.

The plaintiff, who is proceeding as "John Doe" to protect his confidentiality, has not had sexual relations with his wife, from whom he is separated, for approximately two years. Nonetheless, the HMO threatened to divulge Doe's test results to his wife unless he got a court order to protect his confidentiality.

"This is the first time a court has enjoined a health care provider from releasing confidential HIV test results and thus it represents a significant precedent protecting the confidentiality rights of persons infected with the virus," said Nan D. Hunter, Director of the ACLU's AIDS and Civil Liberties Project, who represents Doe.

The ACLU's Kansas attorney, David Waxse, argued on behalf of Doe that disclosure would (1) violate Kansas statutory provisions protecting physician/patient communications, (2) intrude upon Doe's seclusion, (3) results in unreasonable publicity, and (4) amount to a breach of confidentiality between Doe and the health care organization.

"Since Doe has not had sexual relations with his wife in approximately two years — and is separated from her — there is no threat of infection to the wife, and thus no reason to notify her of this confidential medical information," Hunter argued.

In granting Doe's motion to prevent the release of his test result, Judge Herbert Walton agreed with the ACLU's position, finding that a "substantial and irreparable injury" would result from the health organization's threatened release of this information. Judge Walton therefore prohibited the health provider from informing Doe's wife or any other person that Doe had tested positive for the HIV antibody.

"Health care providers must be required to act responsibly during public health crises," Waxse stated. "Breaches of confidentiality such as that contemplated by this HMO will discourage persons from voluntarily seeking HIV tests and counseling."

Judge Walton's restraining order, issued on May 17 in the District Court of Johnson County, Kansas, will remain in effect until Sept. 21, when Judge Marion Chipman, who has been assigned the case, will hold a hearing on the issue.

WALTER LEE WHEELER

Walter Lee Wheeler, who along with his partner, J. Carey Junkin, founded Couples, Inc., the National Organization for Family Diversity, which organized and sponsored The Wedding at the March on Washington for Gay & Lesbian Rights on October 10, 1987, passed away of an apparent heart attack on Monday, May 16, 1988. He was 36 years old.

The organization founded by Wheeler and Junkin to fight for the rights of Gay and Lesbian couples, organized The Wedding as a political demonstration to show that couples of the same sex didn't have the same rights or recognition as heterosexual couples. The Wedding drew more than 2,000 couples participating in the event and many more thousands who came to watch and support the demonstration.

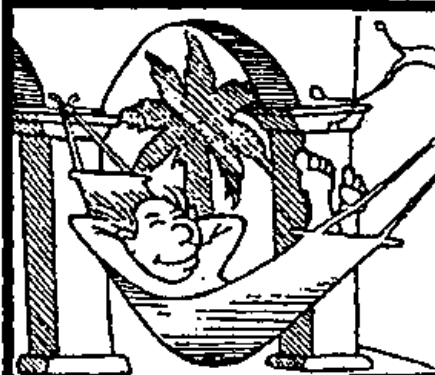

On May 8th of this year, Couples, Inc. sponsored a breakfast after the March on Sacramento to honor Del Martin and Phyllis Lyon, a long-term committed Lesbian couple.

Besides his partner, Carey, Walter is survived by his mother, Margaret C. Wheeler (Meyer) who lives in Maryland; his brothers and sisters-in-law, Ralph and Deborah and David and Sharon; nephews Jeffrey, Joshua and Matthew and niece, Dinah.

In lieu of flowers, donations to Couples, Inc., P.O. Box 13323, Los Angeles, CA 90013-0323 would be appreciated.

TUCSON LESBIAN/GAY ALLIANCE
TUCSON, ARIZONA

Mayor Tom Volgy
P.O. Box 27210
Tucson, AZ 85726

Dear Mayor Volgy:

Greetings! It is time once again for the Lesbian/Gay community's week-long commemoration marking the anniversary of the beginning of the Lesbian/Gay Liberation Movement. This will mark the 19th year since the uprising and rioting at the Stonewall Inn, in New York City, June 28th, 1969. The incident was the first time homosexuals fought back at police harassment and repression. Since that time we have come out of the closet and into the public aggressively and peacefully asserting our constitutional rights.

The Lesbian/Gay community in Tucson was rudely awakened to local oppression when in 1977 a Gay man was brutally beaten to death in the parking lot of a Lesbian/Gay nightclub by a band of three teenagers. Those perpetrators were later tried and found guilty. Their sentence was only probation for their heinous crime. As recent as October 1986, there were three murders of Gay men in the Tucson area. Local harassment continues to plague this community and keep us from enjoying the same freedoms as others.

In the past we have requested from the previous mayor that this Celebration be acknowledged by a Mayoral Proclamation. This request has always been ignored. So again, we as a united Lesbian/Gay community formally request that you proclaim the week of June 19th through the 26th as Tucson Lesbian/Gay Pride Week.

In Tucson we are now preparing our 11th Annual award-winning Lesbian/Gay Pride Week. This celebration is traditionally kicked off by a Picnic which is attended by over 3,000 people. You attended and spoke, as a candidate for mayor, last year.

This year, we again, extend our invitation to you, or your representative, to join us in our festivities on June 19th at 3:00 p.m. at the Himmel Park amphitheater to present the proclamation to the community.

Please contact us at your earliest convenience regarding our request and invitation. Thank you in advance for your time and continuing efforts on our behalf.

Sincerely

Chris Jones

ACLU forms AIDS and Civil Liberties Project

NEW YORK, NY - The American Civil Liberties Union has announced its creation of a separate AIDS and Civil Liberties Project under the direction of Nan D. Hunter, who also heads the national Organization's Lesbian and Gay Rights Project in New York.

The ACLU also announced that attorney Chai Feldblum has joined the AIDS and Civil Liberties Project to work full-time at the ACLU's Washington office, providing AIDS-related public policy analysis.

"Our separating into two projects our ongoing work against AIDS-related discrimination and for Lesbian and Gay rights is a major step forward for us," said Hunter. The ACLU will also soon be adding another full-time lawyer to its AIDS and Civil Liberties Project, now staffed by attorneys Hunter and William B. Rubenstein.

"The separate AIDS Project will focus on the whole range of different groups affected by the epidemic, while the Lesbian and Gay Rights Project will continue to pursue issues like employment discrimination, partnership benefits and constitutional litigation like the Perry Watkins case," Hunter continued.

In the Watkins case, brought by the ACLU in Washington state, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit ruled that the Army's policy of mandatory exclusion based on sexual orientation was unconstitutional. The national ACLU's Lesbian and Gay Rights Project is coordinating amicus efforts as the case continues.

The creation of a distinct AIDS project and separate Gay rights project is also intended to facilitate the ACLU's fundraising for each. Individual donations earmarked for the Gay rights project, the AIDS project, or both are crucial to the ACLU's work in these areas. All ACLU national office projects are self sustaining, and support for its AIDS work and Gay rights work has been heavily dependent on individual donations.

In Washington, Feldblum will work full-time on AIDS issues in Congress for the next six months, until Congress breaks for its election year recess. "We are lucky that she was available during this emergency situation," Hunter remarked. "AIDS-related legislative proposals are constantly being introduced in Congress now. In the last few months we've had to deal with a Helms Amendment to Senator Kennedy's AIDS bill and with the AIDS-related implications of the Civil Rights Restoration Act.

"We constantly see legislative proposals to exclude persons with contagious diseases from protections offered by the federal law against handicap discrimination. These proposals would virtually end future litigation challenging unjustified discrimination against people with AIDS. We have succeeded for the time being in preserving these protections for those with contagious conditions, and keeping up that effort will be Chai's job," said Hunter.

Feldblum comes to the ACLU AIDS project after serving as Director of legislative Research for the AIDS Action Foundation in Washington. She earlier served as a law clerk to the Honorable Barry A. Blackmun, of the U.S. Supreme Court. She graduated magna cum laude from the Harvard Law School in 1985.

Lights of Tucson

by Michael - Tucson

The Last Quarter Moon for the Gemini period, which will not really conclude until after the New Moon in Gemini on June 14th, will drag some more old dirt out in public as it relates to the state government. The Aries/Libra axis will have their financial problems delayed along with any inheritance or other fortune they may have been expecting. Accidents and disasters will continue as promised by the New Moon but hopefully fewer children will be hurt during this week's problems.

ARIES

2nd House Intercepted: Already covered in opening paragraph.

TAURUS

3rd House: A week that will be busy with communications that will bring much gain financially especially from distant places.

GEMINI

4th and 5th Houses: Happiness and harmony will reign in your own home this week. Throw a party and share your happiness with your friends. Also a good time to play the Pick. Go out for dinner with a new romance, take the kids to some sports festivity. You may even become a grandparent this week.

CANCER

6th House: Time for a check-up, doing some exercise, watching your diet and sticking to your job.

LEO

7th House: Avoid arguments with your business partner or mate this week. They may resort to underhanded tactics that will not be fun for you to deal with.

VIRGO

8th House: You could have difficulties with children this week since they will be out of school and restless. A good time to clean out your attic. Have a patio sale and stick pretty much to home for now.

LIBRA

Intercepted 8th House: If you are expecting tax refunds, insurance claims or inheritance, they will be delayed. If you were going to terminate an old existing condition or finish a long-deferred project, you will not be able to do so this week.

SCORPIO

9th House: Avoid becoming obsessed with some new or different religious or philosophical concept at this time. While it is good to have an open mind, you need to carefully research alien concepts before adopting them. You may become involved in litigation through underworld contacts.

SAGITTARIUS

10th and 11th Houses: You may attract some public attention at this time through winning an award or receiving a large sum of money. You could be asked to join a group of wealthy people, or even a secret society.

News from MCC Tucson

This past weekend was a unique weekend for MCC/Tucson. Both Pastor Ed and Rev. Nita were in California attending the Southwest District Conference. Deacon Stephen was officiating at both worship services on Sunday. This was Deacon Stephen's first time to lead our congregation at our Morning Worship Service. Deacon Stephen established himself as a leader in our congregation. The service was inspirational and thought provoking. The message entitled "Planting The Seed" proved that even though the ministers of MCC/Tucson were absent, the ministry of MCC/Tucson was here. Thank you, Deacon Stephen, you made the concept of Christianity a reality in our lives.

This past weekend was Memorial Day Weekend. This national holiday was established to honor those who have given the supreme sacrifice for their country. We all have loved ones who have died in the service of our country, many of us have relatives who are among the honored. Over the years this holiday has been made to not only honor lost ones in the service of our country but to honor those who have left a deep and lasting impression on the lives of those still living. To honor those who are dead is not a morbid thing to do but it is a joyous occasion to remember those who were and will forever be a part of us. We at MCC/Tucson hope that your holiday was a Memorial Day for each of you.

Pastor Ed and Rev. Nita have returned from California and will be leading our worship services next Sunday. Join us for these services because Rev. Ed and Rev. Nita will have good news to tell us about the Southwest District Conference. Remember, our worship services start at 10:45 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. on Sundays.

Thought for the Week: If you have something to say that is worthwhile, say it and don't apologize for having said it.

A REMARKABLE PEOPLE

by Curt Stubbs - Tucson

In late June of 1969 Gays, mostly street drag queens and hustlers, rioted outside the Stonewall Inn in New York City and started the current Gay movement. I had just flunked out of college for the first time. In early June of 1982 my resistance snapped and I realized I couldn't go on suppressing my own homosexuality any longer. I had just flunked out of college for the third time.

Every person, every people has that point beyond which they will take no more. One generation of Gays reached that point on the night of June 29, 1969. They coalesced into one angry mob and fought the police with rocks, bottles, parking meters, even pennies. I reached that point trying to fit 310 pounds of alcoholic blubber behind the wheel of my sub-compact car. I cried briefly, then went home and hid behind the couch to call the Gay help-line for the name of a counselor to help me through the coming out process.

Between the Supreme Court's Hardwick decision and last October's March on Washington it appears that a new generation of Gay activism has been galvanized. Coalitions have been formed, interstate friendships forged, and hope rekindled. They're even marching in Dubuque, Iowa.

In spite of the people we've lost, in spite of right wing ideologues trying use these losses against us, in spite of that recent Supreme Court decision against our God-given rights, the future still looks bright. In the nineteen years since the lower strata of the Gay world lost it, and barricaded New York's "finest" inside a Gay bar, we have earned the right to be called Lesbians and Gay men instead of queers, pansies, bull dykes.

We are now acknowledged by the media and many presidential candidates to be a community, and to be a community that should be catered to by those seeking power. We are continuing characters in national broadcast television shows, sympathetic and well rounded characters on stage and screen, elected officials in many locations. There are a few aspects of contemporary American culture where our impact as a people has not been acknowledged. June of 1988 is definitely a time to celebrate our pride in being Gay. As the commercial says, "We've come a long way babies." So, enjoy, celebrate, be.

As for me, I too have come a long way. I've lost 100 plus pounds and kept it off for five years. I've quit drinking. I've graduated college and begun post graduate work, and most importantly, I've been accepted everywhere as a homosexual, a proud, free, Gay man.

We as a people, are indeed strong and capable, but more to the point, as persons we are each strong and capable. Let us celebrate our community this month, but let's not forget to also celebrate our individuality, and most important, let's be proud of who we are, individuals, homosexual, alive.

The FWA Coalition is that strange group in America today, a group that doesn't believe that an AIDS diagnosis is the end of the world. They are devoted to informing other FWA's and the world about alternative treatments, positive involvement, and the truth about AIDS. To carry on their efforts, they are in need of a new office, one of at least two rooms, that rents for either gratis or a reasonable sum. The other thing they need is one centrally located. If anyone can help, please call 792-3775 and leave your name, phone number and a message. Their work is valuable, and of course, all donations are tax deductible.

COUPLES NEXT MEETING TO RECOGNIZE SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS
PHOENIX - Couples of Arizona, a social and educational organization for those who are in a relationship, has selected "Gay Pride Month" to devote its monthly membership meeting to some of the community service organizations who assist in the struggle against AIDS. The featured speaker will be Dr. Ken Fisher, who will provide a medical update as well as address the particular needs that the disease has created in the Gay community.

Representatives will be on hand from many of the local organizations who are addressing those needs, from AIDS education and awareness to providing practical and emotional support to PWAs, PWARCs, HIV+ and their loved ones.

The meeting will be held on Saturday, June 11, at 7:00 p.m. at Augustana Hall (14th Street at Virginia). Non-member couples are welcome to attend. For further information call Beth or Mary at 831-5920 or Bob or Ken at 841-0583.

Perhaps you've already heard of us or even attended a meeting. If not, we're WINGSPAN: A LESBIAN AND GAY COMMUNITY CENTER. Our objective is to provide Tucson a community-wide, Gay/Lesbian resource and social center. We don't have the place yet (that takes money), but we have terrific energy to make good things happen for Lesbians and Gay men in Tucson. We hope you'll join us in that effort.

You can help by becoming a member: the regular annual fee is $25. And, you can support Wingspan fund-raising events. The first such event will be held during Gay Pride Week - a fun dance:

The Moth Ball:
Airing Out the Closets

Join us at the Del Rio Ballroom, 718 W. Speedway, on Friday, June 17th, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. We'll have a D.J., live entertainment, dancing and a cash bar.

Wingspan members get into The Moth Ball for $3 (you can become a member at the door) and non-members get in for $5. No one, however, will be turned away for lack of funds.

So air out your closet by June 17th, and we'll all have a fun time at The Moth Ball.

For information about our group, becoming a member, or the dance, call Amy at 628-8912. See you on the 17th!

GREAT OUTDOORS Lake Powell Adventure

TUCSON - Great Outdoors of Tucson is planning its sixth annual houseboating expedition on Lake Powell in September. Last year, the fifth trip took place October 5 through 9 when a group from Tucson went to Lake Powell, rented a houseboat for a week of fun, some fishing, and a lot of sight seeing, swimming and rest. Total distance covered on the lake was about 160 miles.

The houseboat "Flag" became the talk of the lake. Everyone loved the bra that accidentally was hung from the flag pole. I know there is a photo somewhere.

Having two ardent fishermen along, it was decided to get a smaller boat to tag-along, and they could trawl along to their heart's content, and we would have a mess of fish one evening for a meal. Lucky for us we brought along extra food. They even went ashore and bought some expensive bait. Funny thing, the last day, as we emptied the refrigerator, what was tossed overboard, some expensive bait that wasn't used. Oh well, I guess that's what fishing is all about.

As usual, evening meals were gourmet feasts, as served by teams of two who were responsible for a single meal. It has reached the point, where Great Outdoors members who attend the Lake Powell trip each year, are threatening to prepare a cook book of the meals served on the trip. Classical music resounds from the cliffs as you were eating, table cloths, and candle light. Afterward, lazing around the campfire listening to more popular music, and shooting the bull.

Early the next morning the Captain would start the engines, and we would cruise the lake. Some of the scenery on the tops of the other boats, really pulled the eyes out of members on our boat. We had one person who wanted us to turn around so he could get a better look. He wanted to photograph the sight, but had left his camera on his bunk.

About 10:00 a.m., we would find a nice sandy beach, and while two other members prepared brunch with Bloody Marys, the rest would explore, swim, etc. After eating, we would again take off, and explore the lake. Rainbow Ridge was a wonderful sight. The members wanting to take photos stayed, while the houseboat took off for gas. We all piled into the small tag-along boat, and headed for the Marina, many did some shopping for extra items, and souvenirs.

All in all, the entire trip was an outstanding success and everyone thanked the trip leader, Maxine, for an outstanding job of organizing and coordinating the trip. The weather was perfect, and as the trip was drawing to a close, plans were being made for the 1988 trip.

The 1988 trip will leave from Hite Monday, Sept. 5 and will return to Hite on Friday, Sept. 9.

Cost for the 1988 trip will be $220 for Great Outdoors members, and $230 for non-members. A deposit of $25 is due with your reservation. Balance is due not any later than Aug. 1. Some of us have found it is easier to make arrangements to make monthly installments, rather than a lump sum payment.

For additional information and application blanks, contact Maxine Snitherman, 5763 E. 19th Street, Tucson, AZ 85711. Phone: 747-2875.

A COMMENTARY BY

CHRISTOPHER GEOFFREY McPHERSON

A MURDER FOR A MURDER?

I think I speak for all of us when I say I was appalled by the May 14th bus/truck accident in Carrollton, Kentucky in which 27 people were killed, making this the worst drunk-driver-related accident in history.

Drunk driving has been a painful sore on the face of society for many years, but never more so than now where a few persons with such a reckless disregard for human life get behind the wheels of a thousand-pound deadly weapon and aim at moving targets.

Larry W. Mahoney, the 34-year-old man who had a blood/alcohol level of .24—which is almost two-and-a-half times more than the legal limit of .10—pleaded innocent to 27 counts of murder May 20. This man might well have a right to a fair and speedy trial, but I hope the jury understands that society has the right to a quick and speedy execution of this person who does not deserve to be called human.

That same Friday night, ABC's newsmagazine "20/20"—in what can be called either expedient journalism or cheap exploitation—profiled this mass-murderer through interviews of those who knew him. We saw the man's current girlfriend (his first ex-wife) crying and telling us this man was kind, gentle, and giving to everyone; his co-workers who said this man would do anything for anyone; his drinking buddies who said he never drank so much as to be unable to control himself; and the mail-carrier who delivered mail to his house for the last 13 years, who told us how this guy would give the shirt off his back to help someone.

All fine and good, but it hardly addresses the grief of at least 27 families and countless other friends who are now missing one of their own.

It might seem I'm being a little hard on this man—but I am not. He was so piss-faced drunk that he crossed over a median on a highway, began driving northbound in a southbound lane, ignored several trucks flashing their lights and honking to alert him he was going the wrong way, then plowed into a school-bus filled with teenagers. A fine upstanding citizen he most certainly is.

But what was worse were the new cameras focusing on these poor kids who had lost school-mates, trying to discover why God had taken them away. Each dead child was described as smart, athletic, active in school et cetera; obviously the kind of child each parent would be proud to have and a student each school would be proud to teach.

These poor kids were racking their brains for an answer that they would find elsewhere; there was no reason these 27 people were "taken away" other than the reason of a stupid 34-year-old man who cared so little for his life and the lives of others that he drank, then got behind the wheel.

Sometimes, life's questions have very simple answers.

In a civilized society such as we like to think ours is, it is hard to justify justice as simple as an eye for an eye. A compassionate people such as we, believe even the worst of us deserves a second chance. Yet, it is equally hard to explain the injustice of 27 young lives snuffed out by a 34-year-old piece of pond-scum who lives. But we must remember: ours is not a nation of justice, it is a nation of laws.

At Spes Non Fracta: See you next week.

WHAT'S UP DOG?

Memorial Day Weekend is past now, but it's one that members of Partners and TKO will not forget for awhile. It's going to take a couple of days of normal Tucson weather for some of us to thaw out. The two clubs had spent the weekend at Rose Canyon, when the weather changed. Friday and Saturday it was OK, but a cold front, accompanied by wind, moved in on this group Sunday and really put a chill on everything.

Thirty-five bodies started the weekend Friday and some of them were dogs, spending those chilly nights at K-9 Heights. Throughout the weekend, a total of thirty people either camped out or visited, along with six four-legged dogs. We had dogs from a 50 plus pounds of holy terror, all the way down to a 10 pound (soaking wet) girl who let it be known to all others, she was the head Queen in that bunch and you had better stay out of her way. Yes, "Kelly" was taking on each dog and laying claim to the title that she was "Top Dog".

While the dogs played their games, some of them stretching their chains to the limits, the rest of us wrapped ourselves in sleeping bags or whatever we had to try and ward off that night cold air. Even sitting at the camp fire, the front was warm, but the back - COLD. Around the camp fire a new title holder was discovered. Tucson now has a "MQ" Marshmallow Queen - aka Ernie. He was eating any size marshmallow on hand.

During Saturday afternoon when the sun was warm, hot in some areas, we did have time for laughs and a couple games of UNO.

Meal times were interesting. With maybe the exceptions of Miss Finley, who brought everything but the kitchen sink along. As he was setting up his area, I kept watching for the lumber truck to pull in and workers build his cabin. As for the rest of us, cooking had to be accomplished in shifts, either on hibachis or a little camp grill. As a result, the feed bag hour lasted longer than normal, but everyone did eat well. Watching Kip cook chicken was a trip because she didn't have a true stove, "How long do I cook it; is it ready yet; is the fire warm enough," etc. etc. etc.

Of course, credit can be given to all of us who did cook on these camp grills and slept in tents - true camping. As for Jerry, Raymond, Greg and Gary who roughed it in motor homes or vans, they only get credit for attendance. To make things even worse, their evening heat was not afforded to us who crowded around the camp fire. Now those four probably want a run pin to prove they were there. Just wait, I'll find each of you a run pin for this one.

Monday morning it was time to break camp and head back to the heart of Tucson. Boy did we get a surprise upon arriving at the bottom of the hill. As for breaking down camp, it was accomplished in record time. Even the dogs (the real type) were in a hurry to leave and get home. Kip and Gary had a real home welcoming, they left their cooler on all weekend. Their house, upon arrival, was as cold as the camp grounds they just left. We all met there for the breakfast we didn't cook up on the hill. During preparation, Kip told Bert the fruit department went on strike, so it was time for Bert to get in the kitchen and fix the French toast.

Then, breakfast over, viewing of the final Gypsy production in Las Vegas, everyone headed home to clean up, thaw out and much needed rest. Now it's time to clean up all the camping gear, launder the clothing, repack all the gear and get ready for the First Ladies Weekend, June 17-19.

Applications to attend this annual fun-filled weekend, can be acquired from any Tucson club or by contacting Bill Pinley or Kip. This year's version of the First Ladies Weekend will be held at Catalina State Park, north of Tucson. Maps to the camping site will accompany the run applications. Camping sites will be on a first come, first grabbed basis. As soon as I'm able to get more details on this run, I'll pass them on to you, but I suggest getting an application early so you'll be along for all the festivities of this weekend.

The theme for the weekend will be "Fairy Tales" and each local club will have camp sites and a skit around this theme. Knowing these groups around Tucson, the skit alone will be worth the drive up, even if just for it, but the campsites and games to be played is worth the stay for the entire weekend. As I stated before, get your applications and get them in early.

Moving on to TKO, every club member has received your newsletter by now. This coming weekend, Saturday, June 4 will be club elections for officers for the 1988-89 season. This is the most important meeting of the year for the club, so make every effort to attend. If unable to attend, follow the instructions for voting noted in the newsletter. If for some reasons you did not receive a newsletter, contact Tommy M. for instructions.

I'll pass on the results of this election in next weeks column. Items, beside previously discussed items, up for discussion will be future plans and ideas for TKO in the upcoming year. This meeting, as are all TKO meetings, is open to anyone who would like to join them for a day of brother/sisterhood. I will tell you upfront that guests may be asked to go into the house during some discussions, but these do not take very long. Bring your swim suit (either material or Mother Nature style) for a dip in the pool after the meeting.

TBBS: Glen was saying he can remember everything that happened during TALL's color hanging at the Bum Steer in Phoenix, but nothing after that. If anyone can fill me in on these details, send them to me in care of the OBSERVER and I'll publish them.... Patrick, I loved your ad for Trax. You see, there are more party people in Tucson. Hurry back.... At a recent birthday for Jarrett, his dad gave him a pair of pants for a present. After trying them on, Gary ended up with them. Thanks Kip for that one..... On the campout at 4:30 p.m. would you believe Tommy M. was seen drinking a Pepsi.

With that I'll put my pen to rest for another week. Don't forget DL's Beer Bust and Uniform Party this coming Saturday at IBT's. Have yourselves a beautiful and safe week. Bye for this time.

CHRISTIAN FARMERS IN ONTARIO
SAY GAY WORKERS MUST GO
KITCHENER, ONTARIO, CANADA (AP) — The Christian Farmers Federation says it won't tolerate homosexuals working on farms or living in farm homes.

The 600-member group says in a 27-page report to the federal and Ontario governments that "our organization would not employ someone who practiced or openly advocated homosexuality."

The report, which covers a wide range of issues including abortion and day care, says farmers belonging to their group won't allow homosexual hired hands to live in farm homes.

The federation has made its concerns known to federal Agriculture Minister John Wise and Ontario Agriculture Minister Jack Riddell. A spokesman for Riddell said the minister has seen the report and said Christians should be offering to help homosexuals, not moving to isolate them.

A spokesman for the Ontario Human Rights Commission says the federation may have difficulty refusing homosexuals employment but is within its rights to deny them accommodations.
