Miss Gay Amistad de Tucson 1990-91

TUCSON - A spirited contest was held last Friday and Saturday evening at the Joshua Tree. Club Hispano de Tucson were hosts to the Second Annual Miss Gay Latina de Tucson contest. Also, there was an election for Miss Gay Amistad Del Club Hispano De Tucson with participants invited from neighboring cities in Arizona, Sonora and surrounding states.

There were six entrants for the Miss Gay Latina contest: Teresa, Jesse, Maribel, Crystal Azul, Gina and Touche'

The judges had a difficult time figuring out the winner but in the end, Jesse (Jose Luis Ramirez) won the title with Crystal Azul (Albert Barnett) as first runner-up.

Three candidates were in the running for Miss Gay Amistad: Sonia Montiel from Los Angeles, Mona Prince from Phoenix and Anita Alonso from Nogales, Arizona.

Once again, after votes were counted, it turned out to be a close decision. Anita Alonso came out the winner and was crowned Miss Gay Amistad Del Club Hispano De Tucson 1990-91.

The performances by all the candidates were well executed and the competition was keen. Each of the candidates are to be congratulated for their efforts and, of course, to the winners, congratulations and a lots of luck for a successful reign for you both.

Study Confirms Oral Sex Risk

by Kathleen Baca

SAN FRANCISCO, CA - A recent study found that 15 percent of 82 men who tested positive for the AIDS virus claim to have no other risk outside of oral sex. The study follows last year's report by the San Francisco Department of Health that they had documented the first two cases of HIV transmission through oral sex.

Unprotected receptive anal intercourse still remains the highest risk of infection for the virus, said Warren Winklelstein, one of the authors of the new study and a professor of epidemiology at the University of California at Berkeley's School of Public Health. "But the new study confirms that unprotected oral sex is risky," he said.

Winkelstein was quick to point out that AIDS organizations have always maintained that taking ejaculate in the mouth could pose potential risk of infection. The study, he said, merely confirms that it is possible.

The virus, Winkelstein said, could enter the bloodstream through small breaks in the oral mucous membranes.

For many Gay men, oral sex has always been considered "safe sex" despite AIDS organizations listing oral

Wisconsin Soldier Sues For Employment Discrimination

MADISON, WI - In a novel approach to fighting military discrimination against Gay men and Lesbians, the American Civil Liberties Union of Wisconsin Foundation has filed a state employment discrimination complaint on behalf of a Gay soldier who was denied employment by the Wisconsin National Guard.

The soldier, Richard Aries of Madison, was honorably discharged by the United States Army at the end of his enlistment after he was denied the option to re-enlist because of his sexual orientation.

Aries then decided to apply for a position with the Wisconsin State National Guard and was told by telephone that there was a slot open, that he would have the same rank as he had in the Army and that he would be eligible for student loans.

When he later attempted to enlist in person, Aries was asked if he was Gay. When he told the recruiter he was, Aries said he was told that the state guard follows the federal regulations regarding homosexuality.

Although federal regulations forbid the enlistment of Lesbians and Gay men in national guard units, Wisconsin law specifically prohibits the state's national guard from discriminating on the basis of sexual orientation. Only Wisconsin and Massachusetts have statewide laws forbidding discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin have condemned the irrational, discriminatory and harmful exclusion of Gay men and Lesbians from the national guard," said Eunice Edgar, executive director of the ACLU of WIsconsin Foundation. "The people of Wisconsin have expressed their confidence that the state's interests can be fully protected by employment policies that require the inclusion of Gay persons."

By fighting the military's discrimination on a state level, the ACLU has opened a new avenue to legal and public challenge, said William B. Rubenstein, the Director of the ACLU's national Lesbian and Gay Rights Project. "In addition to the colleges and universities which are ever more loudly criticizing the military's discrimination," Rubenstein said, "now the military's policy will also be scrutinized by a state human rights commission."

The case against the Wisconsin State Guard is being handled for the ACLU by cooperating attorney Patrick Berrigan of the Milwaukee firm of Angermeier & Rogers. Berrigan also represented Miriam Ben-Shalom, a Lesbian who was ousted from the U.S. Army reserves because of her sexual orientation, in her decade-long battle with the Army.

Ben-Shalom's case challenged the military's policy on constitutional grounds in federal court; it ended this winter when the U.S. Supreme Court refused to review an adverse decision of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit in Chicago.

In contrast to Ben-Shalom's federal constitutional challenge to the U.S. Army policy, the Aries case will challenge the state guard's discrimination before the Wisconsin State Personnel Commission on the ground that it violates Wisconsin's statewide Gay rights law.

If that hearing is unsuccessful, court action is likely.

AIDS Action Challenges NIH Research Priorities

WASHINGTON, DC - Jean McGuire, Executive Director of the AIDS Action Council has challenged the NIH's lack of commitment to the investigation of treatments for the debilitating and deadly opportunistic infections associated with HIV disease.

Appearing before the House Subcommittee on Human Resources and Intergovernmental Relations Committee, headed by Representative Ted Weiss (D-NY), McGuire called on the NIH to "make real" its recent promise to double its trials for opportunistic infections. Currently on 15-20% of trial participants are involved in the testing of treatments for opportunistic infections.

Indicating that AIDS Action is not calling for the NIH to reduce its commitment to anti-retroviral research, McGuire's remarks noted that, "... the scientific community also needs to work to treat and prevent these infections and thus prolong lives. We are talking about meaningfully extending the promise of a longer life by assuring the quality of that life with the necessary treatments that reach beyond the underlying infection. This is both humane, and cost effective if we hope that people will be able to sustain productive and independent lives as they now "live" with HIV disease.

McGuire was part of the panel which addressed the NIH's research efforts in the area of HIV-related opportunistic infections. Her testimony also addressed issues of cost and reimbursement associated with such trials and of the role and functions of the AIDS Clinical Trial Groups.

UPDATE

2nd Annual Walk For Live Oct. 27

TUCSON - Nationwide, October is AIDS Awareness Month. In recognition of this, Tucsonans are accepting the challenge of a 10 kilometer (6.2 mile) pledge Walk of Life Saturday, Oct. 27 at 10:00 a.m., to raise money for AIDS education/prevention and human services to people HIV infected and affected. Hundreds are expected to participate in this second annual event held at Reid Park.

The walk-a-thon, sponsored by the Tucson AIDS Project (TAP), also offers a 2 kilometer (1.2 mile) wheelchair accessible route. All walkers must register to participate. The $15.00 registration fee is payable at the TAP office, 151 S. Tucson Blvd., any time prior to Oct. 27, or is payable at 8:45 a.m. on the morning of the event. Registrants receive a packet of materials and a complimentary lunch following the event. Walkers can call 322-6226 for registration information.

Participants are encouraged to get pledges from family, friends and colleagues. All pledges must be turned in before 10:00 a.m., Oct. 27. Walkers who collect $50 or more in pledges are entitled to a "Walk of Life" T-shirt. Contributions are tax deductible and are most helpful if obtained before the walk-a-thon.

The community is encouraged to turn out for this event and support TAP through participating, donating, and cheering the walkers on.

Michigan Cuts Condom Allotment

DETROIT, MI - Under the Medicaid program, Michigan's poor could get up to 24 free condoms a day. As of Sept. 1, that allotment has been cut back to 36 a month and no more than 12 a day to curb abuse of the program. The program is aimed to prevent sexually transmitted diseases including AIDS.

Over 45,000 Medicaid clients received an average of 46 condoms each during the first year of the program. The federal government pays 90 percent. Michigan spent $84,900.

A state health official said the new limit could hurt some drug users. "One of the known effects of crack cocaine is its stimulus of the libido," said Randy Pope, chief of the state Special Office on AIDS Prevention. "People will have sex five to six times a day, so it's not unusual to have sex 100 times a month."

Two years have passed since we last said "Good-bye" to Bobbi Jo. In those two years we have lived and learned - Bobbi Jo has lived in our memories. The Community Awards of Tucson Committee has honored him with the "Bobbi Jo Memorial Award" given each year. Let us not mourn his passing but rather let us rejoice in having known him while he was here with us.

Bowling Tournament Seeks Local Bowlers

TUCSON - The International Gay Bowling Organization (IGBO)-sanctioned Old Pueblo Invitational Tournament is scheduled for Oct. 26-27-28 in Tucson. There have been many confirmations of bowlers coming from other cities around the country but the tournament committee would like to see more local Tucson bowlers enter.

This is the first tournament to be held in Tucson and it is hoped to make this an annual affair. The entire future hinges on the participation of Tucson bowlers as well as the members of the Tucson Gay and Lesbian community in supporting this event. Many of the tournament cities bring in hundreds of people to their tourneys, and it is hoped that Tucson can do the same. The climate and the facilities are first class and should act as a magnate to bring out-of-state Gay bowling enthusiasts to The Old Pueblo Tournament.

This tournament is, in part, being produced by the Tucson Lesbian/Gay Alliance, the same organization that produces the Fiesta de Mayo extravaganza as well as all the Pride Week events. TLGA believes that the Old Pueblo Invitational Tournament is a plus for our Tucson community and is asking for the same support from the community that they have shown in the other community-wide events.

It is expected that over 150 bowlers will be participating in this year's tournament and that number is expected to grow - with the full support of the community at large. For more information or to register, call Mark at 743-3303.

Openly Gay Republican Wins Primary Race For Massachusetts State House

BOSTON, MA - Mike Duffy won a resounding 6 to 1 victory in the September primary over former Boston School Committeewoman Grace Romero in the Republican primary race for state representative from Boston's ninth Suffolk District. Duffy, a twenty-seven-year-old graduate of Harvard's Graduate School of Government, is the first openly Gay man to run for office in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. He now faces incumbent Democratic Representative Byron Rushing in the November 6 general election.

Duffy's district contains one of the highest single concentrations of people with AIDS in the Commonwealth, and has witnessed an alarming increase in anti-Gay violence over the past six months. Duffy has called for a statewide housing voucher system for people with AIDS, heightened police presence in his district, the strengthening of state gun laws and the hiring of openly Gay officers to the Boston police force.

"There's no substitution for openly Gay representation," said Duffy on election night. "When homophobes on Beacon Hill introduce anti-Gay legislation, I want them to look me in the eye as they do it."

Duffy's progressive candidacy cost him his post as vice-chairman of his neighborhood ward committee last April. In May, Duffy drew additional Republican fire by attacking the party's endorsed candidate for Governor, Rep. Steven Pierce, over Pierce's introduction of legislation barring Gay people from becoming foster parents. Pierce was defeated by William Weld, a progressive Republican who will face John Silber, a socially conservative Democrat, in the November general election for Governor. Silber, the president of Boston University, has opposed condom distribution at the school and remarked in 1988 that "While I will tolerate homosexuals, I feel no obligation to accommodate those of that persuasion."

"The concept of an openly Gay Republican is a new one for lots of people," continued Duffy, "but I've gotten calls from people as far away as Texas and California who read about my campaign in the Advocate and want to help out. Closer to home, Gay people are taking a hard look at Republicans and Democrats and realizing that the old assumptions no longer apply.

In an interview on Sept. 20, Lobbying Director for the Massachusetts Coalition for Lesbian and Gay Civil Rights, remarked that "With the nomination of John Silber as Democratic candidate for Governor, the Democratic party in Massachusetts is in shambles. The liberal candidates who have taken our vote for granted for years are now so weakened that they are incapable of advancing our causes. We need to organize in the Republican party. Mike Duffy's candidacy can lead the way."

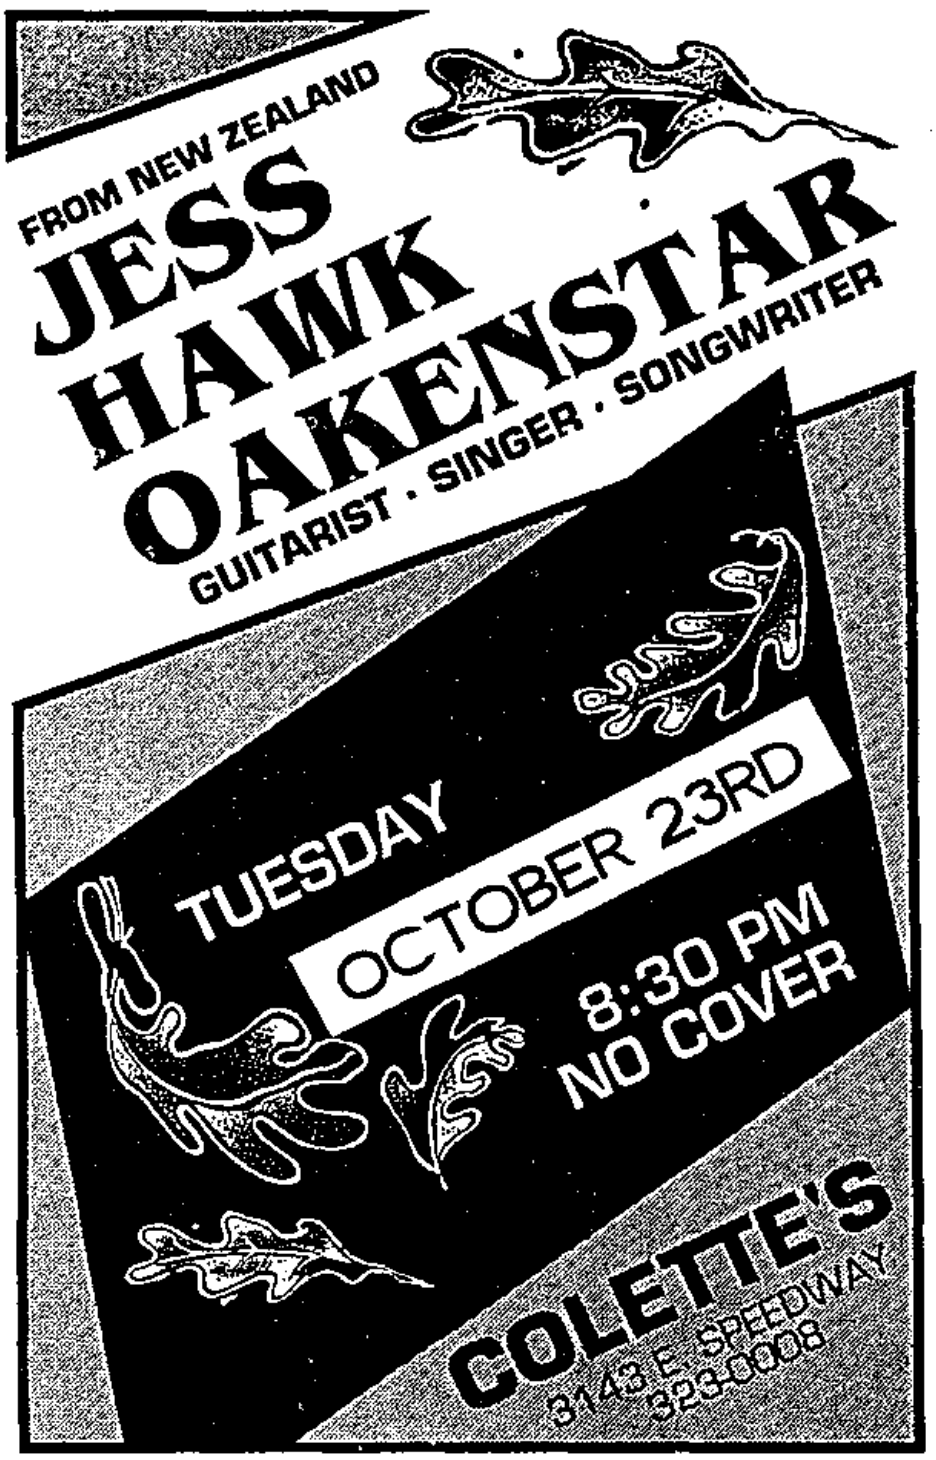
ser as possibly safe. "We haven't changed our position on oral sex," said Pat Christen, executive director of the San Francisco AIDS Foundation. "We've always known and talked about the risk involved with unprotected oral sex."

But for many Gay men having to engage in protected oral sex may feel like another piece of their sexuality is being stripped away. People need to know it's very normal for them to feel that way," Christen said. "Many people will go into denial or mourning, feeling a sense of loss over their change in sexual behavior.

"It's normal for people to feel anger, rage and even denial about the changes they have to make in their sexual behavior," Christen said. "They experience a sense of loss because they can't have things the way it used to be in the past."

"People need to be reminded that they are too valuable as human beings, and to the community, to get infected. We can't take any of these lives for granted. We can't let the community see them as 'just another person getting infected' in a city where 30,000 already are infected. We need people here healthy and alive."

The new study was presented last week at the American Public Health Association in New York.



A Commentary By

Christopher Geoffrey McPherson

In The Eyes Of The Law

On October 5, the Cincinnati Contemporary Arts Center and its directors were found not guilty of obscenity charges levelled against them in April of this year. Earlier that same week, a Florida record store owner was found guilty of misdemeanor obscenity charges for selling a record album that a Florida had ruled obscene.

The First Amendment is getting a good workout this month as court trials on two sides of the same issue come out with two different results.

But first, a word of clarification: I have seen the Mapplethorpe photographs which landed the Cincinnati museum in hot water, and I have heard the 2 Live Crew song that got the record store owner in trouble. I find the song grossly offensive and would call it - using my own standards - obscene. I would not find the photographs obscene, but would definitely question the right of some to be called art.

This is only one man's opinion. And, unfortunately, there are no truly objective measures for judging something obscene. We must rely on the opinions of people who are experts in the appropriate fields to help us judge.

However, we must be wary of any group of people who claim to be so expert as to deem something obscene and to levy penalties against someone. I can judge what is obscene to me, but not what is obscene. One man's obscenity is another man's art.

Although I am happy for the Cincinnati museum, and sad for the Florida man, I am pleased to see justice prevail -- in at least one case. As well, I am glad to see that the Florida case will probably go to the Supreme Court. Although their decision can never be foretold, I would personally like to see obscenity standards review by the high court in the hopes that the First Amendment will be strengthened.

Of course, such a high court review could also diminish the Amendment, placing us in an even more tenuous position than we are now in.

Denver Anti-Discrimination Ordinance Ready For Vote This Week

DENVER, CO - A proposed Denver anti-discrimination ordinance has been changed to specifically deny spousal rights to Gay and Lesbian partners in an effort to get the measure passed. The change was added to calm fears that the measure would lead to a new definition of what constitutes a family.

The proposal was introduced last Tuesday and a public hearing and possible vote are expected this week.

"I think by adding that language and just making sure that people's fears are calmed that we have probably been able to secure some support that was wavering," said Tony Ogden, a leader of the Equal Protection Ordinance Coalition that is promoting the measure.

After the proposal was unveiled a month ago, questions surfaced about its intent. Some critics - including Catholic Archbishop J. Francis Stafford and other church leaders oppose recognizing Gay unions in the same way as traditional families.

Such recognition might prompt mates of the same sex to seek insurance and other benefits now reserved for heterosexuals, which could drive up costs and improperly broaden society's concept of the family, opponents said.

Ogden said the proposal contains no hidden homosexual-rights agenda. Nevertheless, the so-called "domestic partners" exclusion was added to help ensure passage, he said.

The ordinance would ban discrimination based on sexual orientation, race, color, religion, national origin, gender, age, marital status, military status or physical or mental disability. Federal and state laws cover all those categories except sexual orientation.

City officials plan to refer most complaints to higher agencies. The ordinance is needed, they say, because racial harassment is on the rise and harmed people will feel more comfortable approaching a local agency.

Man Arrested After Hiding AIDS Test

LINCOLN, NEB. - A 23-year-old man has been arrested and charged with attempted first-degree assault because he allegedly planned to have sex with someone without telling the person he had tested positive for HIV.

Lt. Steve Ines said police were notified by an employee of a theater about a message written on a bathroom wall, giving a phone number and asking anyone interested in using drugs and having sex to call.

A detective called the number and set up a rendezvous with the man at a hotel, Ines said. When they met and the man indicated he was interested in having sex, the undercover detective arrested him for vandalism for writing on the bathroom wall.

Police then learned that the man believed he had tested positive for antibodies to HIV, Ines said. Despite that knowledge, he allegedly planned to go ahead with sex without telling the undercover detective he had tested positive, Ines said.

A View From The Rock

A Commentary From Cornerstone Fellowship

Recently, one of my friends who is living with AIDS attended a "mixed" function, one at which most of those attending were Gay, although a few straight people were there also. My friend was having an enjoyable time, until he was approached by someone who said, "People with AIDS got what they deserved. After all, the Bible says, "The wages of sin is death!'"

Perhaps you also have had similar experience, or know someone who has. "If that is how God operates," you may have thought to yourself, "I don't want or need any part of Him!"

Like so many "Bible Thumpers", that person only quoted a small part of Scripture, one which he felt proved his own bigoted ideas. Yes, the Bible does indeed say, "The wages of sin is death". That verse, however, applies to every single person who has ever lived. It applies to the most famous preacher, to your favorite bartender, and even to that "Bible Thumper!" Because we all have the same ancestral parents, Adam and Eve, who sinned by disobeying God in the garden of Eden, we are all under the same condemnation" we all deserve death for our sins.

However, the rest of that verse contains some very good news: "...but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." (Romans 6:23) Even though we all deserve death for our sins, not because we are Gay or straight, but because of our common ancestors, God has promised us not death, but life! Jesus Christ is the only one who never sinned, and therefore the only one qualified to take the punishment for our sins. For each of one of us who accepts Him as our Savior, the promise of eternal life begins now!

What's Up Doc ???

URGENT: Bowlers are needed from Tucson for the upcoming IGBO "Old Pueblo Invitational Tournament". This is a first for the City of Tucson and one all bowlers in the different leagues should try to get into. This tournament will be held Oct. 26-28 at the Fiesta Lanes. Registration forms have been placed in some of the different bars so pick one up, read it over, and join in on the fun. We've gotten a bunch of applications already from Phoenix so my question is: Are We Going To Let Phoenix Better Us In Numbers?

Talking to Jack Stockslager yesterday, he said to let everyone know to forget the cutoff date listed on the application. You now have until Oct. 25 to register. The time is needed so all information can be placed into the computer for the records, and later, assignment of bowling lanes. It will also be updated after each bowler turns in his/her score sheet, which you will be signing, stating that the score is correct. If you have any final questions, you may contact one of the bowling members, Jack, Mark K., Mark C. or myself.

Come on Tucson, let us show all of our out-of-town guests we, in Tucson, do support ourselves.

If you missed the Grand Opening over at HOURS, you really missed out this time. Betty and Lee (Lee claiming she is the boss), really put on a festive weekend. Large crowds were on hand all 3 evenings and all had a good time. To the person that carried the tar into the bar on the bottom of their shoe, do not let Lee catch you. Congratulations to both of you for a very clean appearance and impressive decor and all of us look forward to many happy years at this (as Bob E. put it last week) new - old watering hole.

This coming Sunday, Oct. 21, it is time for the always hilarious "Turnabout Show" at the Graduate. Check elsewhere in this issue for their ad for times and everything. I highly recommend you get there early, that is if you plan on getting a seat.

I was witness to something this past weekend that I, if I had not seen it for myself, would not have believed - Roger, sitting at the bar, had 2 glasses of plain ice water. Roger was also overheard calling Jim Smith, "Mr. Flat Knees".

Don't forget, CAT Committee members are going around town for registering you - the voters. If you haven't caught up with one of them as of yet and taken care of it, watch this paper for announcements as to different times and locations they will be. If you still are unable to contact one, trying calling the Chairperson of the CAT Committee, Rev. Ed Perry, at MCC Church. Some of the time when you call MCC, you may get Ben or Annie, also CAT Committee members, and you can ask them.

Also, in approximately one month, it will be time for this year's Tucson version of the "Arizona Fellowship Run IV". Run fee for the complete four days is only $20, which gets you all 8 meals, and enters you in all the different games that will be played over this entire run. Applications for this run should be appearing in your favorite watering spot in the near future. This run starts off on Thanksgiving with the traditional Thanksgiving Dinner served at the MCC Church.

At the time of this writing, all meals will be served at the MCC Church. and the different games played around the different local bars. A full itinerary will be published along with the run application. This annual event is the one time that all of Tucson's clubs work together in the true spirit of Brotherhood/Sisterhood. This year's host club is Partners, so if you have any questions, either see them at their monthly Beer Bust at IBT's on Oct. 20 from 2 to 6 p.m. or contact Ben, their President.

It is time to print this column out so that Keith can drop it off. Have a loving week and try to remember, we are all in this together - Tucson- and we all love it.

OP To Present A Night Of Political Fun

TUCSON - With the election less than a month away, Old Pueblo Business and Professional Association will present for its October meeting, "A Night Of Political Fun" featuring longtime favorite Arizona Daily Star political cartoonist, David "Fitz" Fitzsimmons, who will amuse those attending with his cartoons lampooning the political candidates.

Also on the agenda is the Arizona Daily Star Political Columnist, Tom Beal, who will talk about the upcoming election, the statewide races, the local races, and the ballot propositions. Also on the agenda will be the Arizona Committee for Progress, and the Lambda Democratic Caucus, who will share insights on the election.

The meeting will take place Friday, Oct. 19, at the Hotel Park Tucson. The social starts at 7:30 p.m. with the meeting starting at 8:00 p.m.

POLITICS '90 by MARK R. KEIR

In my travels to the events in Campaign '90, and my meetings of the various candidates running for the numerous political offices, I found a select few that warrant a special endorsement from this reporter.

TERRY GODDARD FOR GOVERNOR

Terry's a man with a proven track record as mayor of Phoenix. He has turned the city around from one with a troubled economy to one of prosperity. He is the candidate with a plan to turn our state's depressed economy around, and the guts to implement it. Terry is very concerned about human rights. He is strongly supportive of the "Lambda Planks" and will move to get legislation introduced and passed. Terry is a person we can count on. Terry is a person we need.

RICHARD MAHONEY FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

A rabble rouser, a boat rocker, a person who will shake things up. These characterizations have been used to describe Richard Mahoney. Mahoney will be a tremendous asset as Secretary of State. He will change the office from one of paper pushers to one of reform. He believes that our elected officials should not make a career of it. He wants change. He wants to bring the state government out of the dark ages. We need him to serve.

MARION PICKENS FOR STATE HOUSE DIST. 9
JOHN DOUGHERTY FOR STATE SENATE DIST. 9

These are two people running in Legislative District 9 that I consider a must for the Lesbian and Gay community. Marion and John are ardent supporters of human rights for the community and have the courage to move to get legislation enacted. Both will be there for us when we need them. They deserve our votes.

EVAN ADELSTEIN FOR STATE HOUSE DIST. 12
KATHERINE JACOBSON FOR SENATE DIST. 12

Here are the two best candidates in the state. Evan Adelstein is THE person for us in the state House of Representatives. He is a person that sticks to his views on the issues, unlike the incumbent Ruth Eskeson who is waffling on, for example, the importation of toxic waste. Her campaign literature states she is against the importation, but she voted not to restrict importation. People said she is a "diamond in the rough!" Eskeson has promised to support legislation on Gay and Lesbian rights. We can no longer accept promises. Evan Adelstein will not promise - he will act. Now is the time for Adelstein.

Katherine Jacobson will be the crowning jewel in the State Senate. She has the experience, working as an aide for the Pima County Board of Supervisors. She has a plan to help Dist. 12 and the state. Katherine is a friend to the community and a person we can count on. For Gays and Lesbians in Arizona, vote for Katherine Jacobson.

HERSCHELLA HORTON & RUTH SOLOMON
FOR THE STATE HOUSE DIST. 14
CINDY RESNICK FOR STATE SENATE DIST. 14

Three friends that we must elect November 6th. Ruth and Cindy have a wonderful, progressive record in the legislature when it comes to human rights. They are candidates who will represent the district, not the lobbyists. Herschella is a candidate who has a long record of community service (Tucson Women's Commission, etc.) and a plan for the district and for us. Ruth, Herschella and Cindy are three people we need.

Until next time, take care.

Overwhelmed by the 12-page ballot? Bewildered by the issues and candidates? Roaming Around With Chuck

First, let me congratulate Ron Brewer for snapping up the "Mr. North America Drummer 1990" title. It's always good to see an Arizona man hit the top... I am sure he will not only be a great representative at leatherfests and fundraising events around the world... but more leather guys will be interested in learning more about Arizona. It not just a hot climate... but HOT men! Good luck Ron and may you have a great year.

Also our wishes are with you Greg Olson at the Rodeo and hope you are a big winner again this year on the circuit... we love you and are glad you chose Arizona to live in and represent in the Rodeo circuit. It is great to have two top guys here in Arizona representing our communities.

It sure make one feel good especially after reading about the three recent murders in Tucson. It is sad that guys can't always feel safe when out cruising for some fun. We are now living in a strange and violent world compared to only 20 or 30 years ago. And the attitude of the society in general that fears AIDS and so take up Gay bashing for entertainment. A friend of mine in Walkerville, Australia recently answered a letter to "The News" newspaper in Adelaide... A politician had written in that there should be stronger laws dealing with Gays and AIDS. Marcus' letter to the editor is quoted here:

"I wonder if you would be so kind as to publish a letter explaining why David W. Griffiths is wrong. His letter is rather emotive and does nothing to help the situation at all. Whipping up hysteria will only make the situation worse, as we need to look at the situation calmly and rationally.

"As most people who are infected with AIDS are Gay or Bi-sexual, normal morals and heterosexual values do not apply.

Although it is not illegal to engage in homosexual practices, societal pressure is such that few people would admit to it, although quite a large percentage of the population does it. Making harsh and repressive laws against AIDS carriers will not work, as people will become even more hypocritical.

"The Adelaide City Council has embarked on a program of closing the public lavatories around the parklands, presumably to stop homosexual activity. Although this may initially make things difficult for this activity, people will always find a way around a problem. This is more likely to increase AIDS, because if people have to meet clandestinely, they may not be carrying a condom.

"Making homosexual activity illegal again will not work, as we had laws prohibiting homosexual activity before 1976 and that failed. So, I am sorry Mr. Griffiths, I just do not believe harsh and repressive laws is the way to go, it only encourages them."

Marcus Hamilton-Smythe
Walkerville, July 4, 1990

It seems to be happening more all over the world, reminds me a bit of the book "Future Shock" where he figured homosexuals would more or less be corralled in special cities away from the rest of the world! So much of the things in "Future Shock" have come true or are in the process... it makes one stop and think! So please, if anyone out there knows about anything pertaining to the murders in Tucson, call Homicide or 88-Crime! If we as a community can help find these killers, let's do it, it may save another life!

We need more scorekeepers for the Bowling tournament. Call Shanti and sign up for either Saturday or Sunday, or both! The Shanti Potluck is on Oct. 21, Sunday at 4:30 p.m. Bring a dish and come socialize a bit.

Until next time, love ya,
Chuck

Gay Horticulturists To Hold Fall Meeting In Tucson

TUCSON - The Lavandula Society and Liatris International, two plant professional organizations for Gays and Lesbians, will hold a fall meeting in Tucson this year.

This meeting is being held in conjunction with the national ASHS (American Society of Horticulture Science) meeting. Members are naturalists, horticulturists, florists, landscape architects, botanists, educators, plant breeders and plant enthusiasts. The meeting will be held at the Wingspan Community Center at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 6.

The Lavandula Society, has over 320 members from 34 states, and have had meetings in Seattle, Atlanta, Memphis, Raleigh, St. Louis, Chicago, Madison Wisconsin, Austin, Texas and Portland, Oregon.

Lavandula is the latin name for the herb Lavender. Lavender is used as a fragrance in soaps and perfumes and is a member of the mint family. However, it is the lavender color of the flower that many of us, if not all, are most familiar with, and which the Gay community has embraced.

Liatris, also a latin name, is a plant commonly known as gayfeather or blazing star. The gayfeather has rosy purple or white flowers borne on a bold spike and is native to the prairie.

Liatris International meets annually at the national ASHS and IHC (International Horticulture Congress) meetings. The group is mainly plant researchers, an started holding meetings in 1986.

For further information write to: Lavandula, P.O. Box 2641, Champaign, IL 61825-2641 or Liatris, P.O. Box 1336, Davis, CA 95617-1336 or plan to attend the gathering on November 6.

Gays and Lesbians Dance At Disneyland

ANAHEIM, CA - Lesbians and Gay men danced with partners of the same sex on Saturday, Sept. 15, ten years after two Gay men were ejected from Disneyland for dancing together.

Andrew Exler, 29, of Palm Springs said the same-sex dancing was in commemoration of the 10-year anniversary of Disneyland ejecting him and a male dance partner from Tomorrowland Terrace on Sept. 13, 1980, after disco dancing together. The two men sued the park and in 1984 won a lawsuit which effectively reversed Disneyland's 1957 policy barring same-sex dancing.

On Sept. 15, Exler says twelve male couples and two female couples danced for 30 minutes at the Tomorrowland Terrace to the live band "Discovery", which played pop 40 music. The couples participated in both fast and touch dancing without any confrontations from guests or park security. However, while the couples were dancing, a Disneyland security officer ("Cheryl". Badge number 69) was overheard telling park guests: "There was a lawsuit 10 years ago; I hope they all die from AIDS -- they are going to die from AIDS anyway..."

Exler says that the comment from the on-duty officer was totally inexcusable and should not be tolerated by Disneyland officials. "Her comments were clearly homophobic and in very poor taste, especially since persons with AIDS were dancing that evening," he said. Exler has demanded in writing that Disneyland publicly apologize for the officer's offensive and derogatory comment, but Disney officials refuse to return his phone calls.

People travelled to the park from as far as Seattle, Washington to attend the 10-year reunion.

Bit Of The Old South

by Sean Thomas

This last weekend was great. Those of you who missed the Grand Opening celebrations at Hours, really missed out. I was there Saturday and had the best time. The remodeling so far has been amazing. With owners such as Lee and Betty they can only have one thing and that is success. They want a truly mixed bar where both men and women can have fun together. A "Community" bar for the community. We love ya and wish you all the best. Come on out and Party at Hours, 7-days-a-week.

On Sunday, the Community Rummage Sale was held in the parking lot of Hours for the Frensdorff House. Plenty of goodies were donated. I'd like to thank the following people (hopefully I haven't forgotten anyone; if so I apologize): Rev. Ed Perry and the family of MCC; Bert and Ernie Hoop and members of Desert Leathermen; Myron and Jerry and the Sisters of Sonora; the fun people of Partners; Doc and Keith and TKO; Ben and Ann Corbin; Kenny Davis and Southern Hospitality; Michael Bennett of Rumorz and French Quarter; Lee and Betty and the Hours gang; Terry and Gary and especially Bob and Gary from the Observer. What we didn't sell this time, and there is a lot, we will be selling at the Tanque Verde swap meet in a few weeks. That really great idea came from Bert Hoop. Thanks Bert. Tucson, you make me proud.

Congratulations to John on being elected President and Paul as Vice President, (or is it President of Vice?) of PACT for Life's board of directors. Happy Birthday Paul!

I heard the Mastery class this last weekend was a total success. Great going guys!

Well, it looks as if you may not be reading the responses to your questions to TAP. Let the silence be your response. Let me correct that. The silence is only from one man at TAP, not the organizations. There are some beautiful, heart generated people there. I am not maligning the group, just questioning one person. They do fulfill a great need in some respects. The questions were from members of the community. I passed them on. The ball is in his court. Looks like the end of the subject.

Till next week: Sean 323-3780. Please play safe!

News From MCC/Tucson

by Ben Corbin

In recent news articles several of our established churches have taken into consideration changes that would have been unthinkable much less discussed a few years ago. A "Main Line Church" was a phrase coined by our founder of the U.F.M.C.C., Rev. Troy Perry, back when the U.F.M.C.C. was first begun. It was the original intention of the founding members of U.F.M.C.C. to create a denomination that would accept the minorities until the established churches would realize that a church is for everyone.

Now that the "Main Line Churches" are taking a look at their doctrines and dogmas, making many changes and accepting the minorities, U.F.M.C.C. now no longer has any plans to disband and have it's members return to their former churches. Even though the established churches have made some changes, the changes are not all that fulfilling.

As the U.F.M.C.C. celebrates it's 22nd Anniversary this month and as MCC/Tucson prepares to celebrates it's 20th Anniversary in December, many activities are being planned. This weekend "Three Days In October" will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday with Rev. Charlotte Strayhorn as our guest speaker during the services. Next weekend, Oct. 27 and 28, our District Coordinator, Rev. Don Pederson will be in Tucson. Coming in November, MCC/Tucson will have their Annual Thanksgiving Dinner for the community. Many other events are in the planning stages and as we close our second decade we have plans to be here for many decades to come.

This weekend, on Friday, Oct. 19, our Worship Service will begin at 7:30 p.m. On Saturday, Oct. 20, we will have a Workshop on "Self-Esteem" starting at 3:00 p.m., then a Pot-Luck Supper at 5:00 p.m. and then an informal "Share and Care" Service at 7:30 p.m. On Sunday, Oct. 21, starting at 10:45 a.m. we will have our regular worship service with Rev. Strayhorn giving her final message. Everyone is welcome to attend any or all these services. MCC/Tucson is proud to be known as a "Family of God" and as a family we welcome and take pride in having anyone join the "family" in the House of God.

Thought for the Week: You cannot use your friends and have them too.

Jay Eckman and Jim Toevs, hosts at the Defeat Jesse Helms Party held at their Tucson Old Pueblo Bed and Breakfast Resort on Sunday, Oct. 21

The guests were entertained by the vocal talents of Anne English at pool side and also the piano music of Joe De Benidictus. The assembled guests were treated to a wonderful array of hors d'oeuvres as well as liquid refreshments.

Although the 'goal' was not reached, nearly $800 was raised and has been sent directly to the Gantt For Senate Campaign in North Carolina.

Meanwhile, in North Carolina the news continues to indicate that Gantt and Helms are running neck and neck. Polls indicate that it is too close to call at this point. Around the nation a boycott continues against the Philip Morris Company because of their continued financial support for Senator Helms. There is some indication that this boycott is having an effect also. It is hoped that these Anti-Helms parties, being held nationwide, will raise enough money to put Senator Helms out of the race and out of office for good.

"We hope that this is the first of many such meetings that we will host at Old Pueblo Resort," said Toevs. "Some other local Gay and Lesbian organizations have inquired about our facilities, so we are excited about this place becoming a community meeting place for our local clubs and organizations," Toevs continued. For more information, call 577-6018.

The Newest Little Regional In The Southwest!

TUCSON - The first annual Old Pueblo Invitational Tournament is a reality at last. It will take place this weekend, Oct. 26-27-28. Only an idea and a dream less than six months ago, now has come to fruition due to the hard work of a small group of enthusiasts who saw the chance to have the event placed on the International Gay Bowling Association (IGBO) bowling tour which will assure it being held in Tucson each October. The tournament itself is a sanctioned tournament and is a mixed handicap competition open to women and men.

The tournament events consist of singles (men and women) doubles, team competition and an optional scratch singles event. All cash awards shall be based on total pins plus handicap for each event, except optional scratch singles. Awards will be given for the Best Team, Doubles, Singles (men and women), All Events Singles, and High Handicap Game and High Handicap Series.

There is room for 160 bowlers who are expected to come from Arizona, the west coast, and across the country. At press time the actual number of bowlers who will compete was not known.. All bowling will be done at the Fiesta Lanes, 501 W. River Road. Itinerary for the weekend is as follows:

Friday, Oct 26
Welcoming party for the bowlers at Joshua Tree, 2921 N. 1st Ave. from 8:00 p.m. until 1:00 a.m.

Saturday, Oct. 27
Registration 11:00 a.m. at Fiesta Lanes
Singles Competition Schedule A: Noon
Doubles Competition Schedule A: 3 p.m.
Singles Schedule B: Noon
Doubles Schedule B: 3:00 p.m.

Sunday, Oct. 28

12:00 p.m. - Team Competition Schedule A & B at Noon.

3:30 p.m. Cocktail Party at Quality Inn 1601 N. Oracle Road. The Quality Inn is where most out-of-town bowlers are staying.

4:00 p.m. Banquet and Awards Ceremony

Volunteer scorekeepers should be at Fiesta Lanes one hour prior to bowling time for lane assignments.

Anyone not wanting to bowl but wishing to enjoy the activities is welcome to come to Fiesta Lanes and cheer the bowlers on. There is also a Non-Participant Registration area at Fiesta which non-participants may register. The fee is $15 which will get you a packet including a name tag, discount coupons for various local businesses and also includes the banquet dinner fee.

Most of the local bars are planning special events or special drink prices for the bowlers throughout the weekend.

IGBO is the largest Gay sports organization in the United States with over 25,000 members and it sanctions over 45 tournaments annually throughout the United States and Canada.

Everyone is encouraged to stop by the Fiesta Lanes and show our out-of-town guests your support and encouragement.

The Old Pueblo Invitational Tournament is, in part, being produced by the Tucson Lesbian/Gay Alliance, the same organization that produces the Fiesta de Mayo extravaganza as well as all the Pride Week activities. TLGA believes that the OPIT is a plus for our Tucson community and is asking for the same support from the community that they have shown in other community-wide events.

The absolute deadline to register for qualified bowlers is 5:00 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 25.

OWNER
IRA LONDER,

Bit Of The Old South

by Sean Thomas

Well Tucson, I had the distinct honor of interviewing the two new owners of what is now called "HOURS" (formerly Rainbow Room). If you haven't come by and enjoyed, then you've certainly missed out. It is a nice, new and fresh change of pace. And a great addition to the weekend bar-hopping route.

Betty is a local homegrown girl and Lee is a 15 year transplant and both are true delights. It's nice to see a couple stay together for going on to 7 years. For the last four years they have owned and operated two local service businesses with success. They purchased "Hours" for a long-term investment and their desire to be a more active part of the community.

They are definitely here to help in any way possible. They believe in offering the community a variety of options: Country one night, dance music the next and always a clean neighborhood bar atmosphere.

If you have wondered where the name came from it came from Lee's mom; a play on words. Their logo was a combination effort of an old friend Pan and Annie Schnitt. Looks good!

They both have high hopes for the community and want to help. They are very busy people as well as working full time, they still manage to have quality time together and as they told me, "We are friends as well as lovers." They take time on Thursdays to dine at the French Quarter. "We are all in this together. We are here for one and all," Betty and Lee stated.

Sunday, the 28th Hours will be celebrating Halloween with a show at 8:30 starring Tiffany St. Thomas and Christina de Alexis followed at 10:00 with a Costume Contest with prizes of $75 for Most Original; $50 Scariest; $25 Tackiest, with dancing to follow. Good luck girls!

Oh, and by the way, I forgot (unintentionally) Roger of the Graduate last week...Thank you Roger for your contributions to the rummage sale for Frensdorff House.

And finally, on Sunday, Nov. 11 at the Quality Inn is the Miss Gay Arizona Pageant. One of the biggest Gay events in the state. I sincerely hope all will be there. Whether you like drag or not, I think you'll be surprised. It is nice to see the support that the local bars and organizations are giving this event. Thanks for not planning any events on that night. It really proves our commitment to Gay unity and pride. Thanks.

Till next week: Sean 323-3780.

POLITICS '90

by MARK R. KERR

As you all know, the November General Election Ballot will be the longest ballot in recent times. Subsequently, certain elections for various offices will go with little or no coverage. This week's column is devoted to some of the smaller races.

CONSTABLE

There are two contested races - in Justice Precinct 2 and Justice Precinct 5. In Precinct 2 there is a terrific candidate by the name of Daniel Dorgan. Dorgan will "open" up the office, making it accountable to the electorate. Daniel will work hard to keep good relations with the County Board of Supervisors. He is a person qualified to be Constable.

In Precinct 5, there is a person trying to reform the office. The gallant candidate is Terry Lehrling. For the past 14 years, Terry has served as chairman on the Parks and Recreation Commission of Pima County. He's gone through the Tucson educational system (elementary through UofA). The office needs reformation. Terry Lehrling is the person to do it.

PIMA COUNTY COLLEGE GOVERNING BOARD

There is one contested race in PCC District 1. In the race, there is a clear choice - Ted Koff. Koff, a Pima County resident since 1962, has a Doctorate in Education, serves as a professor of Public Administration and Policy at the UofA. He is also the Director of the Arizona Long-Term Care and Gerontology Center. Ted is a very active community leader, serving on various boards of volunteer groups. Ted Koff is the person to serve on the PCC Board.

TUSD BOARD

In my opinion, we need to send a message by electing Bob Miranda and Gloria Copeland to the Board. The message is one of change (cutting the Administrative budget, cutting the size of the classrooms) which will become a reality. Bob and Gloria are very qualified, and would be an improvement, a needed improvement.

END NOTES

A break through occurred last week. The Tucson Lesbian and Gay community leaders had breakfast with Terry Goddard the next Governor of Arizona. Representatives from OPBPA, Shanti Foundation, Third Friday Coffeehouse, the Observer and the Lambda Democratic Caucus. The breakfast was very informative, for both sides. Ideas were thrown about as well as suggestions.

Goddard stated that he would like to turn this into an annual event. I'm glad he wants to, because it shows that he truly wants our suggestions, criticisms, as well as our praise and support.

What's Up Doc???

Well Tucson, it has finally arrived, our first annual IGBO bowling tournament. This tournament, "The Old Pueblo Invitational Tournament," the newest Little Regional In The Southwest, is this weekend at the Fiesta Lanes. Festivities for the event begins this Friday evening at the Back Pocket/Joshua Tree at 8:00 p.m. On hand for this evening will be all of the bowlers from out-of-town plus the local bowlers who are entered in this tournament.

This is Tucson's first International Gay Bowlers Organization (IGBO) sanctioned bowling tournament. This will also be on the IGBO regular yearly tournament tour. It is hoped by all working on the committee, that have also put many miles on vehicles recruiting bowlers, that you Tucson bowling enthusiasts will stop at Fiesta Lanes and root for all the bowlers, giving them a taste of Tucson's famous hospitality. The bowling schedule for Saturday and Sunday appears in the feature story in this issue of OBSERVER.

All volunteer score keepers should be at the Fiesta Lanes by 11:00 a.m. for the 12:00 p.m. bowlers and at 2:00 p.m. for the 3:00 p.m. bowlers so that you can get your lane assignments. I will be stationed at the registration table for you to sign in with and receive said lane assignments.

For anyone wishing to participate in this tournament but does not want to bowl, there is a Non-Participant Registration area for you. The cost of this will be $15.00, which gets you a button, discount coupons and also includes the awards ceremonies and banquet.

All local bars will be having different bowlers drink specials and other activities. Come on Tucson, let us show all of our out-of-town guests the true Old Pueblo hospitality we have always been famous for. A complete run down of the winners will be published in next week's OBSERVER, plus any other topics of information on some for the bowlers that I am able to dig up, juicy or otherwise.

Another annual event coming up is Tucson's annual "Arizona Fellowship Run". This run is held over the Thanksgiving Day holiday weekend, and involves all local clubs. Partners, this year's host club, will be serving the traditional Thanksgiving Day meal at the MCC church on Thanksgiving Day evening. A run application will be in all the bars this weekend. Run fee for the complete run is only $20. This fee gets you entered in all the different games the clubs and Arizona Fellowship Committee has come up with, and also gets you all meals served during this run.

There will be two evenings of bar-hopping Friday and Saturday. On each day, the bar-hopping will end at one of the bars which will be having something special. I'll fill you in on more as the date draws a little closer, but do mail in those run applications early.

Well, what can I say about this year's Turnabout Show at the Graduate that you have not already heard more than once. By far, this year's version surpassed all expectations, and out shined the previous 7 years. The variety of entertainment I witnessed goes beyond description. Picking out one performer that stole the show would be hard to honestly do, but I will say Roxanne and crew were just marvelous. In a way I am glad this show only comes around once a year. I'm not sure I could handle more.

With that I guess I will close for this week. It has been a beautiful weekend, especially since the Wildcats defeated Larry Smith and the Trojans on their home field. Now let us all hope they can finish the year out in a positive winning way and we will be invited to one of the bigger bowls this year.

Have a loving and heartwarming week and I'll see you next week. I will be looking for a large Tucson turnout also at the bowling alley, rooting the different bowlers on.

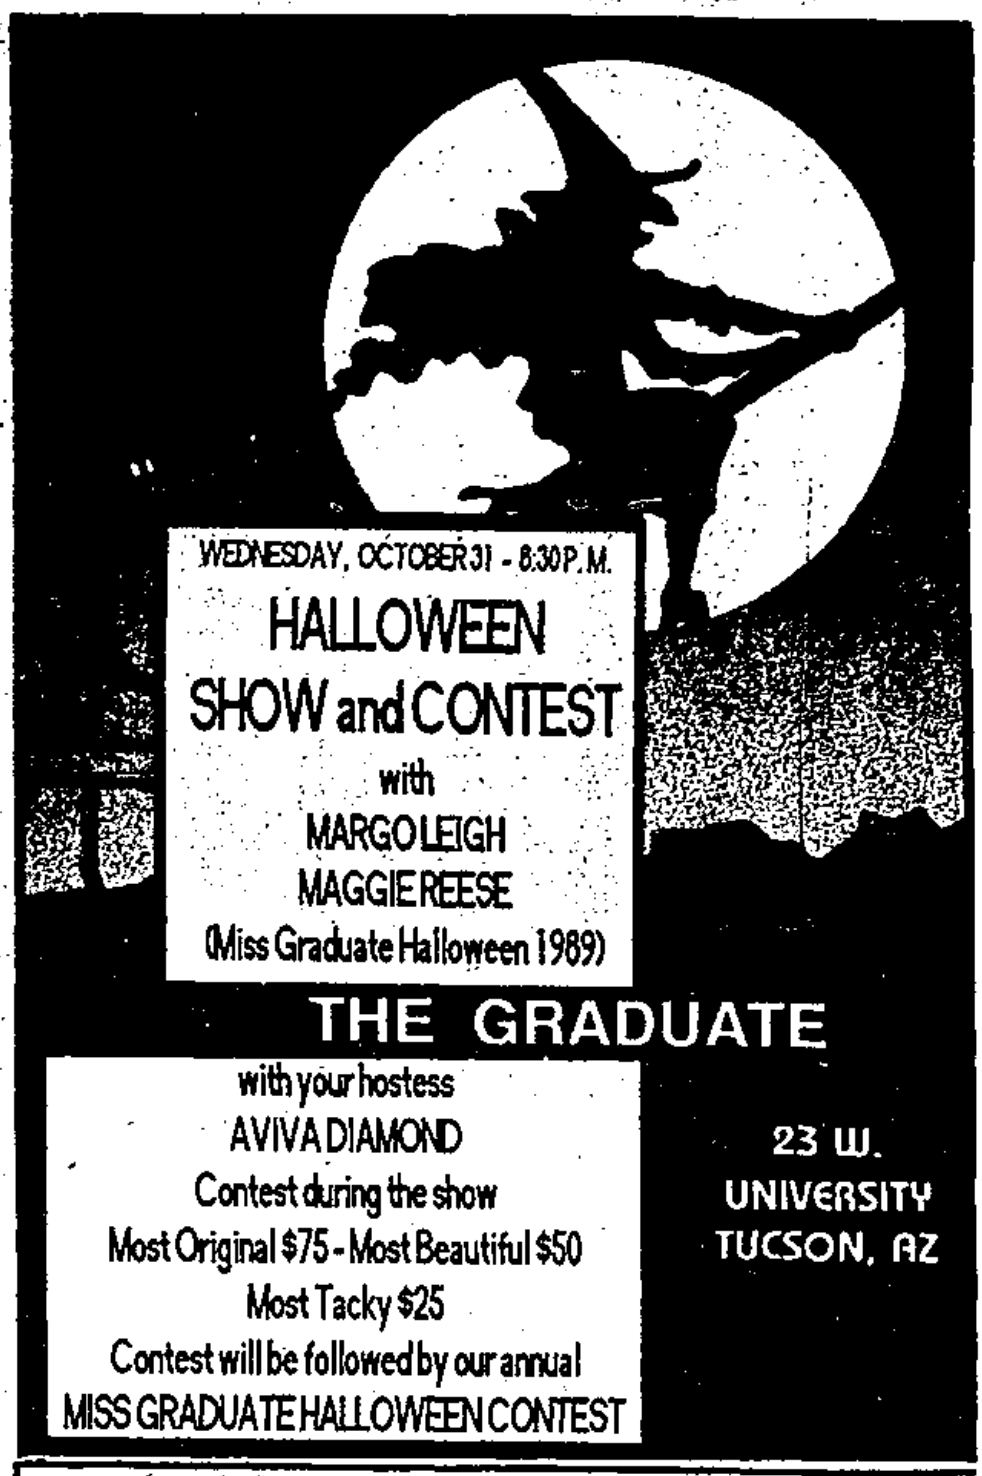
Turnabout Show Grand Success

As usual, a packed house was on hand to view the annual Turnabout Show that the Graduate has produced for the last 8 years. And, as usual, the show was an exceptional evening of some 'rare talent' (raw talent) featuring some of the Graduate regular customers on stage entertaining, as well as a sprinkling of 'professional' entertainers.

The list included The list included Neil, Andrea, Kenny Ann, Candi, Markette, Lady Di, Jason, Stacy, Doris, Sofonda Peters, Patricia Prettymore, Dora Jar, Tommy, Terry and, of course, Roxanne (Roger). The evening was hosted by Aviva Diamond.

Each performer turned in striking performances. Outstanding were Roxanne's rendition of "Over The Rainbow"; Dora Jar's "Cry"; Kenny Ann's "Hanky Spanky" and Roger, Terry and Kenny's version of "Rum and Coca Cola".

It was an evening where everyone had a great time. The audience was treated to a fast-paced evening of comedy and talent and the performers were treated to an enthusiastic audience and a series of long tip lines. As many said, this was probably the biggest and best Turnabout yet. If this keeps up, the show will have to be performed at TCC Music Hall to handle the crowds.



TUCSON - Nationwide, October is AIDS Awareness Month. In recognition of this, Tucsonans are accepting the challenge of a 10 kilometer (6.2 mile) pledge Walk of Life Saturday, Oct. 27 at 10:00 a.m., to raise money for AIDS education/prevention and human services to people HIV infected and affected. Hundreds are expected to participate in this second annual event held at Reid Park.

The walk-a-thon, sponsored by the Tucson AIDS Project (TAP), also offers a 2 kilometer (1.2 mile) wheelchair accessible route. All walkers must register to participate. OUT ON THE TOWN

Can Lucretia Pimplebum relate to the last time Trax had a live show during daylight hours when only 2 people knew the score. So now the Butch Marshmellow really has a veritable Butch to drive it when Mae needs it. And the Ponderosa is still home of the Welcome Wagon Hostesses for the Old Pueblo.

Will the Phoenix crew really make it to Lady Di's sandbox party later this month. Will they dare? Will it be the old Ponderosa revisited anytime soon? Just how many people can sleep in one bed at one time. Is this really Christina's heaven and hell on earth, and what happened to that namesake?

Somebody needs to get Lady Di a "No Vacancy" sign sometime soon. Whenever she gets tired of entertaining, she just brings the party out to the Ponderosa. What happened to all that wood? If this keeps up it's going to be a cold winter. So, who was that Butch winner at Le Far West gambling night, the Russian River Queen?

Who was that commercial Queen anyway. How did the Jersey Lilly fare with the Fair Haired Male Youth of Copulation? And who was the door guard Vegas gambler and just how confortable was that bathtub? And will Cybil ever get over Big Bertha's $180 rip off? Frances Farmer is welcomed to the Ponderosa Annex neighborhood and Magic Fingers Madge lives.

Dentist With AIDS Sends Warning Letter

TALLAHASSEE, FL (AP) - A dentist believed to have given a patient AIDS during a tooth extraction has sent others he once treated a warning letter suggesting they get tested for the virus.

"I'm sorry I cannot tell you this face to face, but I am dying of this disease," wrote Dr. David J. Acer of Stuart. "I am very close to the end."

The Centers for Disease Control last month reported that a 21-year-old woman contracted AIDS during a dental visit, the nation's first known instance of a health professional apparently giving the disease to a patient.

The agency did not identify the dentist or the patient and said it was not clear how the virus was transmitted.

"I do not understand how such a thing could have happened, and I do not believe it did happen," Acer wrote. "I am a gentle man, and I would never intentionally expose anyone to this disease."

Panel to Ferret Out Obscenity in Federally Subsidized Art

WASHINGTON, DC (AP) - The National Endowment for the Arts is creating a special watchdog panel to investigate complaints from "any reliable source" that grant recipients are violating the law by using federal funds to produce obscene art.

Plans for the panel were disclosed in a letter from NEA general counsel Julianne Ross Davis to the lawyer for the American Poetry Review, a Philadelphia-based literary magazine that subsequently rejected a $10,000 endowment grant over the obscenity issue.

The three editors of the 24,000 circulation publication said they found the NEA's obscenity guidelines "restraining and damaging to the process of selecting materials for the magazine, as well as to poets and writers."

Davis told the magazine in late July that the panel, to include herself, a deputy NEA chairman and program specialists in theater, literature and other arts disciplines, will "make initial determinations with respect to allegations of obscenity" based on "a complaint from any reliable source.

NEA spokeswoman Virginia Falck said the term "reliable source" referred primarily to members of Congress, the major source of obscenity complaints. She said it might also include individuals and such conservative NEA critics as the Rev. Pat Robertson and the American Family Association.

Since the obscenity ban was enacted last October, Falck said, the endowment has fielded several dozen inquiries from members of Congress about possible violations, but none has resulted in withdrawal of grant awards.

Davis said that if the panel determines there is a "substantial basis" for the allegations, the grant recipient will be asked to respond. If the recipient persists in violating a congressional ban on use of federal funds for obscene art, the NEA says it will demand return of grant funds.

"This is not an attempt to roust out all obscenity," Falck said. "It's not Big Brother coming in."

In a related development, NEA chairman John E. Frohnmayer served notice that he will continue to require grant recipients to sign a controversial anti-obscenity pledge until a New York federal judge rules on a lawsuit charging that the pledge violates the Constitution's free speech guarantees.

Frohnmayer instituted the pledge last fall after Congress voted to prohibit federal support for works that "may be considered obscene, including but not limited to depictions of sado-masochism, homoeroticism, the sexual exploitation of children or individuals engaged in sex acts and which, when taken as a whole, do not have serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value."

The obscenity ban was tacked onto the NEA's current $171 million appropriation after Sen. Jesse Helms, R-NC, and other conservative lawmakers complained that some images in endowment-supported exhibitions of works by photographer Robert Mapplethorpe and artist Andres Serrano were pornographic and sacrilegious.

A Commentary By
Christopher Geoffrey McPherson

"Memphis Belle"

Is it truth or is it romance to see the young American pilots fly their 25th --and possibly last-- bombing mission"? Is it a fuzzy, warm, soft nostalgia or is it a true representation of how things were in 1943?

"Memphis Belle", the new film by producer David Puttnam ("The Last Emperor") captures all the romance, nostalgia, and warm respect we feel when we remember the bravery of our American military during World War II. With a fine cast of actors --Matthew Modine, Sean Astin, Eric Stolz and singer Harry Connick Jr. among them-- and incredibly accurate production values, "Belle" goes where few films have successfully gone before: the gritty, tough world of fighter and bomber pilots and crews.

But, this column is not about the movie as it is about timing --which, after all, is everything. This film, which opened the second week of this month, looks back fondly at a time 47 years past, at the only B-17 bomber to ever make its quota: 35 missions. All the others stopped at 24 or fewer. 13,000 planes and 200,000 men flew-- and only one completed 25 missions.

Although the events in this film--all based on fact-- took place decades ago, "Belle" also looks at the state of combat today, although quite by accident. Who would have thought this film would be released during the closest thing to war America has seen in two decades? Who would have guessed, as we watch the cinematic pilots, news stations would be reporting the accidental deaths of fliers in the Persian Gulf?

Yes, timing is everything. But, we can sit back, popcorn secure in our lap, our lives secured around us, and watch this dramatization with the same detachment from reality as, say, "Fantasia"? Can we watch it impassively as we would watch any muscle-man film? Can we honestly say "What a great film that is" when there are young men and women on the other side of the world preparing to recreate the same scenes Puttnam filmed in a studio?

What cannot be forgotten, and was not forgotten in "Belle", is that real men flew, and died in, the B-17 bombers featured in the film. Real men risked their lives to protect a way of life we now take completely for granted.

For as great a film as "Belle" might be, it is an almost sickening irony to realize how little things have actually changed in nearly five decades.

News From MCC/Tucson

by Don Conkle

Last week during our "Three Days In October", Rev. Charlotte Strayhorn conducted a workshop entitled "Self-Esteem". During this workshop a list of statements was given to each participant to test the knowledge and beliefs regarding homosexuality. The statements were presented so that each participant could either agree or disagree with the statement. It is to shudder with horror to think what many heterosexuals believe to be fact. The following is a partial list of those statements - do you agree or do you disagree - and remember, there are those who strongly agree:

1. Homosexuals are mentally ill.
2. Gay men and Lesbians are unfit parents and should be denied custody of their children.
3. You can tell a Gay man by his effeminate mannerisms.
4. Gays recruit young people to become homosexuals.
5. Most molesting of boys and girls is performed by homosexuals.
6. Homosexuality is contagious.
7. Lesbians and Gay men are obsessed with sex.
8. If everyone were raised correctly, homosexuality would disappear.
9. Gay people don't settle into stable relationships.
10. Gay men and Lesbians are threats to the family unit.
11. Lesbians and Gay men just need to give the opposite sex a try.

It was previously announced that this coming weekend our District Coordinator, Rev. Don Pederson, would be in Tucson. It was announced last Sunday, that due to pressing District business, Rev. Pedersen had to cancel his trip to Tucson. He is re-scheduling his itinerary so that he will be in Tucson sometime the first part of December. A new announcement will be made when the date is confirmed.

We are fortunate, however, to announce that Rev., Judy Davenport from MCC/Albuquerque, New Mexico will be in Tucson this coming weekend and will be delivering the message at our Morning Worship Service starting at 10:45 a.m.

This Saturday, Oct. 27, the monthly Bingo Games will be held at the church, 560 S. Stone Ave., starting at 6:30 p.m. Cash prizes will be paid to the winner of each game. Bingo cards are printed with three (3) cards to a sheet, each sheet is sold for fifty cents (.50) each. Refreshments will be offered during the evening. Plan now to join with us for the fun games. Because of Halloween on the 31st, everyone is encouraged to come in costume as your favorite "spook".

Thought for the Week: Denunciation of the young is a necessary part of the hygiene of older people; it greatly assists the circulation of the blood.

A View From The Rock

A Commentary From Cornerstone Fellowship

The congregation of Cornerstone Fellowship was treated to a very special blessing last Wednesday, Oct. 17. The musical group "Heartsong" was in town, and ministered to us in an absolutely wonderful evening of music and testimony. They shared with us a very unique and challenging message of "outrageous living" in Jesus Christ.

When Pastor and I first read the press release for Heartsong, we wondered just what "outrageous living" meant, not having ever heard the term in a Christian context, nor being familiar with the ministry of these brothers. We found out last Wednesday just what "outrageous living" in Jesus really means.

Because a person belongs to Jesus Christ, he or she has the right to live a life of freedom. Not freedom to sin and live like the world, but freedom to live an abundant life: freedom from distress, worry, fear, sorrow and pain. Outrageous living means I don't have to be distressed when I get sick; Jesus is my physician. I don't have to worry when I lose my job; Jesus is my provider. I don't have to fear when danger strikes; the Lord is my Shepherd. I don't have to dwell in sorrow when I experience loss; God is the Father of comfort. I don't have to be defeated by pain; the grace of Jesus Christ is sufficient for me.

Larry, Heartsong's tenor, learned that his father was having a heart attack at 4:00 the afternoon of the performance. Because Larry knows how to live outrageously, he performed with joy and confidence at 7:00, knowing that God is in control. If you speak with any Spirit-filled Christian who is in God's will, they will be able to tell you how it is possible to transcend the cares of this world and live a life of joy and hope. This only comes through a personal relationship with the Author of joy and hope, Jesus Christ.

The congregation of Cornerstone Fellowship learned a lesson about "outrageous living" Wednesday night, one that I dare say won't be forgotten any time soon.

Roaming Around With Chuck

Lately I have been getting requests for the "Hanky Code" from all around the world . . . Australia, South Africa, England and Germany plus a few small towns in the U.S. It seems as though the code is gaining in popularity in some areas, whereas in other areas it has never lost its popularity. So here are some of the codes that I was told are still very popular and in use a great deal:

COLOR	LEFT POCKET	RIGHT POCKET
Robin Egg Blue	69er	69 ee
Gray	Bondage Top	Needs Restraint
Pink	Uses Toys	Seeks Inserts
Orange	Anything Anytime	Not Interested
Black	Heavy S&M Top	Beat Me, Bottom
Navy Blue	Pitcher	Catcher
Red	Puppeteer	Puppet
Light Blue	Wants Head	Gives Head
Gold	Two Looking for 3-Way	Seeks 3-Way
Yellow	Gives Golden Showers	Loves To Be Showered
Kelly Green	Hustler	John
Mustard	Well Hung	Size Queen
Coral	Suck My Toes	Shrimper
Hunter Green	Daddy	I Need A Man
Apricot	Lots To Love Chubby	Chubby Chaser
Teddy Bear	Likes To Cuddle	Hard Core Cuddler

These are supposed to be the most popular, now I know that tall, dark and handsome hunk with the little teddy bear in his left rear pocket wanted a few weeks ago... and I missed the boat as he left alone.

Father Bob at St. Andrews is getting plans together for the second annual Thanksgiving Dinner at St. Andrews for people living with HIV and AIDS. If you or your club or group would like to help out in any way, call him at the church ... we want to make this even bigger and better than last year.

Sex, Lies and HIV Tests ... Adapted from the New England Journal of Medicine and in the November issue of Reader's Digest. Advising young people to ask about a new partner's sexual history before engaging in sex may not be enough to protect them from AIDS according to California researchers. In a sample of 422 sexually active 18-to-25-year-olds, 34 percent of the males and 10 percent of the females said they had lied about their sexual history in order to have sex. When asked if they would tell a partner they had a negative AIDS test when they hadn't even taken the test, 20 percent of the men and 4 percent of the women said YES!

The researcher's advice: Always use a condom, even if your partner argues otherwise. Practice Safer Sex!

Until next time...Love ya...Chuck
