H.I.T.T. Definitely A Hit

TUCSON - Last weekend's Halloween Invitational Tournament - Tucson, was an unqualified success being attended by 172 bowlers as well as 30 plus non-bowling participants. Bowlers from several cities descended on Tucson beginning Friday night ready to make some money, some new friends, and party.

Many non-bowling Tucsonans stopped by Golden Pin Lanes on Saturday and Sunday to check out the event (as well as the bowlers). Many were surprised by the size of the crowd and the festive and very Gay atmosphere. After spending only a short time there, several people found themselves caught up in the spirit of the crowd and signed up to participate in the remainder of the weekend.

In addition to the bowling events (which were held at Golden Pin Lanes), several social events took place to the delight of out-of-towners eager to spend some time in regular shoes. Everyone particularly enjoyed the Pumpkin Carving Contest at the French Quarter and Saturday's Costume Contest/Halloween Party at IBT's. There were many interesting and creative entries in each contest, notable among them being the "Jock-O-Lantern" pumpkin (carved by Kent Tallant of San Diego), and the costumes of the Bloody Mailman, the extravagant Las Vegas Show-

POLITICS '91 by Mark Kerr

Next Tuesday, November 5th, the City of Tucson will be holding an election for Mayor and three City Council seats - Wards 1-2-4 which comprise the city's west side, southeast side, and northeast side. Also, there will be several ballot propositions to consider as well.

Please note that in the general election you will vote for all three council races as well as mayor, unlike the primary where you just cast a vote for the ward race. Since I live in the county, I am ineligible to vote in the city election, but if I could vote, this is how I would cast my ballot:

GEORGE MILLER FOR MAYOR

George Miller is a man with a proven tract of public service - 13 1/2 years on the City Council, involvement with numerous community service and neighbor-hood associations. He is in tune with the business community - especially the small business community. He, himself, owned a painting contracting firm which he started in the mid-1950s. George is a man who will bring Tucson forward into the 1990s by bringing in new industry and jobs into Tucson. He will also take into consideration the needs and concerns of historic sites and districts and also the neighborhoods that make up the Old Pueblo.

Miller is a man who will find a compromise to satisfy all concerned. That is what we need to lead the City of Tucson.

When it comes to issues concerning the Lesbian and Gay community, George Miller stands out far and above. He supports a "Domestic Partners Bill" similar to what they have in San Francisco. George plans to put a "Hate Crimes" ordinance onto the city books with full criminal penalties. Concerning the parks situation and the selective enforcement of the lewd and lascivious act by the police and the city attorney's office, George Miller will end this discrimination. Miller is a person that the Tucson Lesbian and Gay community needs.

In the races for City Council seats up for election this year, I would cast my votes as follows:

BRUCE WHEELER	WARD 1
JANET MARCUS	WARD 2
ROGER SEDLMAYR	WARD 4

Bruce, Janet and Roger have always been a good team on the Council, always forming a consensus for the good of the community.

When is comes to issues concerning our community, Bruce and Janet have always been strong supporters of our endeavors. Roger Sedlmayr has changed his position and is now a supporter of our community. Roger supports changing the "lewd and lascivious" act and ending the selective enforcement and prosecution. Roger has come around and now we must support him with our votes. He has earned it.

The Republicans are fielding three right-wing, homophobic extremists who believe in the "lewd and lascivious" act and have stated they will try to repeal the anti-discrimination ordinance now on the city books. We do not need this. We have a good team. Let's give our supporters another term in office.

When it comes to the ballot propositions, here is how I would vote:

PROPOSITION 100	NO
PROPOSITION 101	YES
PROPOSITION 102	NO
PROPOSITION 103	YES
PROPOSITION 104	YES
PROPOSITION 200	NO

The election is just around the corner - next Tuesday, November 5 - please go to the polls and vote.

Seeking Gay/Lesbian/Bisexual UofA Alumni

TUCSON - An interest group meeting for Gay, Lesbian and Bisexual Alumni from the University of Arizona will be held during Homecoming Weekend, this Saturday, Nov. 2. The meeting will be held at 3:00 p.m. at Wingspan, Tucson's Gay and Lesbian Community Center, 240 N. Court in downtown Tucson. For more information, call Greg Shrader at (602)577-2402 or BGALA at (602)621-ASUA.

The formation of the Alumni group is the logical outcome of a year that has seen the creation of the Faculty and Staff for Gay, Lesbian and Bisexual Equity as well as the Bisexual, Gay and Lesbian Association (BGALA) which is officially a part of the Associated Students of the University of Arizona (ASUA). BGALA and Lesbians, Bisexuals, Gays United! (LBGU) recently sponsored a National Coming Out Day Ball which was held on the University of Arizona campus and attended by more than five hundred people.

UPDATE

Margo Leigh 'Sweeps' Two Torch Awards

TUCSON - In what might have been a surprise to many in the audience who did not know but one of Tucson's favorite performers was the hit of the Torch Awards held on October 20 at the Ramada Inn downtown. He received one and she got one also. Confused? Let us explain.

Mr. Lee Thompson (aka Margo Leigh) was on hand for the festivities and was honored with the "Newton John Skinner Self-Empowerment Award". His award was accepted by his alter ego Margo Leigh. A few minutes later Margo Leigh was honored with the "Community Leader of the Year Award". The smiling Margo Leigh (aka Lee Thompson) is shown above holding the two beautiful Torch Awards.

MCC Members to Host Leather & Spirituality Workshop

TUCSON - On November 10-11-12, the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches (UFMCC) will hold their Southwest District Conference in Albuquerque, New Mexico. This is a time for all the churches within the Southwest District of the Fellowship to come together to conduct the business of the District as well as have a great time of fellowship and worship. Throughout the weekend, workshops will be held that will deal with various issues within UFMCC. For the first time, members of MCC/Tucson will be facilitating one of these workshops.

Rev. Ed Perry, Pastor of MCC/Tucson will, will lead the delegation which will include Asst. Pastor Nita Terlisner-Willey; Ben Corbin, Lay Delegate; and Dennis Bell, Clerk of the Administrative Council.

Bert and Ernie Hoop, who have been active in Tucson's Gay community since 1984, and members of MCC Tucson since 1988, will be facilitating a workshop on Friday, Nov. 10 called "Leather and Spirituality". "This workshop will deal with the mystique surrounding the Gay leather lifestyle, some of the misconceptions, and some of the problems people of leather, who are also Christian, face even within their own local church", commented Bert Hoop.

The difficulties in being a leather Christian have only recently been openly discussed. At the last General Conference of UFMCC held in Phoenix in July, a group was formed to help address these issues. People of Leather Among You (P.L.A.Y.) is a group of men and women throughout the Fellowship who want to make leather Christians a more visible part of the Church and Christians a more visible part of the leather lifestyle.

"We sometimes forget that, even in our own fellowship, there are still areas in which we lack understanding, with barriers between us that we have to bring down. We hope this workshop helps toward that end," Hoop said. "We want to try and find possible solutions."

Renewed Trans-Group Forms

TUCSON - "Butterfly", a local support group, has just made a few new changes. First, the group has been reclaimed, re-registered and re-organized by its original founder/coordinator. Second, the group is now not just for transsexuals, transgenders and transvestites but the Gay cross-dressing community as well.

The group has a new meeting place. It is in the front building of the Metropolitan Community Church at 3269 N. Mountain Avenue. The first meeting will be at 7:00 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 9.

"Bring a refreshment if you choose, a friend if you can, but by all means bring yourself," said R. Karen Davies, spokesperson for the group. "Cross-dress if you wish though it is not mandatory that you do as it has been in the recent past."

"Butterfly is not just a social club, but much more than that. Here, one will find fellowship, acceptance and educational seminars on makeup, hair, clothes, electrolysis, hormone replacement therapy and much more. And most of all, the much needed support to 'make it' in this complex twentieth century," Davies said.

For more information, call R. Karen Davies, 293-3456 any evening.

LETTERSLETTERSLETTE/ETTERSLETTERSLETTER.

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

I am a person with AIDS. I almost died of AIDS complications on September 4th of this year. Through the grace of our Lord, and Divine Spirit, I was saved and instructed to teach people how to make their bodies strong and healthy.

After the crisis, I had a severe stutter, loss of memory and total fatigue. I now have renewed energy and memory, and the stutter is almost completely gone.

If you would like more information, you may call me, Yogi Poohanandaji, (602) 294-4974.

DEAR EDITOR:

I'd like to offer my sincerest appreciation to the many, many people who helped make H.I.T.T. '91 a big success. Tucson hosted close to 175 out-of-towners this year, with total participation well over 200. Without the financial assistance of our sponsors, program advertisers, and members of the Tucson Gay and Lesbian community who supported our fundraising events, this tournament would not have been possible.

A special thanks goes out to the other members of the Committee, Dennis Russell, Bill Close, Danny Duncan, Ken Davis and Greg Bennett, who worked long and hard for the past eight months so that these past 72 hours would be as professional and problem-free as possible. We were also quite lucky to have the tireless efforts of our tournament volunteers: Chris, Norm, Doc, Keith, ticket salesmen Brad, Bobby, John & Wayne, Tom, and Paul from San Diego, and my "Guy Fridays': Max (who served as my right arm at Old Tucson_ and Rodney (who handled the entire Saturday event at the French Quarter and the pumpkin judging on Saturday night)... thanks again, guys.

Finally, for those of you who were not able to be part of this weekend, we hope you'll join us next year. Even if you don't bowl, there are plenty of ways to be involved and share in the party atmosphere. We look forward to seeing you at H.I.T.T. '92.

Sincerely
Mark Rosenbaum
Tournament Director

Local Activists Meet With Arizona Republic Staff

PHOENIX - Attorneys Roger Rea and Daphney Budge along with Peter Crozier of the Lesbian and Gay Public Awareness Project recently met with publisher Louis Weil and editor William Cheshire of the Arizona Republic. The meeting was requested by Rea to voice concern over insensitivities and inaccuracies in the Republic's editorial coverage of issues impacting Gay and Lesbian people. The meeting was timed to coincide with the arrival of Louis Weil.

According to Rea, "Weil was publisher of Time magazine for two years and has recently taken over as publisher of the Republic. We want to make sure that he is aware of our concerns about the paper's Gay bashing editorials and encourage both him and Cheshire to make some changes."

Crozier says, "Over the last year, 90% of the newspaper's editorials containing references to Gay and Lesbian people were hostile or negative. We want the Republic to stop running highly offensive, inaccurate editorials about Gay and Lesbian people."

Much of the meeting involved frank discussions of editorials that characterized Gay and Lesbian people as "potential pedophiles" or mentally ill. The Republic was urged to include more positive coverage of Gay and Lesbian issues. Crozier presented Cheshire with copies of the Awareness Project's "Guide for Media Professionals."

The meeting chairperson Daphney Budge said, "The meeting was generally helpful and constructive. We were encouraged by much of what we heard from Louis Weil. We plan to hold a further meeting with other members of the editorial staff in the near future." The Arizona Republic recently appointed city desk reporter Joyce Valdez to cover local Gay and Lesbian issues. Valdez can be contacted at 271-8746.

The weekend was topped off by a well-received Awards Banquet at Old Tucson Studios. Although Sunday's unusual weather caused the banquet to get off to somewhat soggy start, Old Tucson's Soundstage provided the perfect place to relax, mingle and unwind. The banquet featured a great show starring Makoma Shaye and Loren Johnson as well as awarding of bowling prizes totalling over $3,800.00. As the ceremonies concluded, a little after 7:00 p.m., the overwhelming comment was, "We'll be back next year."

Congratulations to IBT's Desert Coyotes bowlers Bill Richards, Rob Haddix, Gil Leon, Danny Duncan, Al Mally, Chuck Ingram, Greg Bennett and Steve Engebretson who all won cash awards (see the Bowling Beat column in this issue).

Q: Advice From Your Counselor A.

740 East Speedway Blvd, Suite 108! Tucson, Arizona 85715

I am not Gay. I think homosexuality is disgusting, but I was shown a copy of your column and would like to know what you think about Gay teachers, who can't reproduce, being allowed to recruit, and even molest our precious children. How can you work with a mental health occupation and condone this very sick behavior?... (this excerpted question taken from almost five full typewritten pages).

Your letter was filled with misconceptions that come primarily from a lack of exposure to anything more enlightening concerning the homosexual community than sensationalism in television and the printed media. However, I am impressed with your candor, and because you were open enough to sign your name and address, I assume you are honestly seeking information.

Homosexuality is no longer studied or classified as a psychiatric disorder. The American Psychiatric Association removed homosexuality from its list of mental disorders several years ago. The majority of medical and psychiatric professionals agree that being Gay is not a "sickness". The only studies that suggest mental illness as a cause for sexual orientation are those which were conducted in mental institutions where virtually all of the participants were patients committed for gross misconduct or severe emotional disorders (clearly not an appropriate representational study group).

Extensive research projects conducted by the National Right to Privacy Foundation, The American Psychiatric Association, and Masters & Johnson, have proven the overwhelming majority of child molesters to be heterosexual relatives of the victim. Lesbians and Gay men are every bit as angered by this crime as are heterosexuals. Gay people are certainly able to have children (some studies indicate nearly 20% of the American Gay population are parents) and they have younger brothers and sisters too, about whom they would share your concerns for safety and proper education.

There are now, and have always been teachers who are homosexual, and there will continue to be, whether or not you are aware of their orientation. The issue for you should not be whether there will be homosexual teachers, but rather, whether teachers are doing a good job, and are adequately paid for their vital contributions to the community.

No "sudden rush" to be Gay by students of a homosexual teacher has ever been recorded. Homosexuality cannot be "taught" like a political philosophy; students cannot take on their teacher's sexuality the way they might their teacher's politics. Leading experts feel that an individual's sexuality is determined by age four, and usually doesn't change after that. Teachers don't stand in front of a classroom saying things like "Be Gay! It's the only way to be!" They teach history, or whatever the subject matter of the class. Forcing one's own values on students, whether they be religious, political or sexual, is never appropriate, and no one with a sound mind, whatever their sexual orientation, would ever authorize or condone recruiting minors for sexual purposes. Clearly proven misconduct such as this would, at the very least, be legal grounds for dismissal.

I strongly urge you to get to know more about the many variations of sexual orientation, and communicate with the people you know to be Gay. You will certainly be enlightened by the experience, potentially making new and enriching friendships, and quite possibly confront some issues about sexual orientation that I suspect are much closer to home than you are currently willing to realize.

What's Up Doc ???

Tucson is well established as a fun community to visit during the Halloween weekends. In a short two years, Tucson has placed itself on the map of bowlers from all around the Southwestern U.S.

There were over 170 bowlers and friends in last week's Halloween Invitational Tournament - Tucson (H.I.T.T.). Only about 30 of those were from Tucson itself. This being only the second year of this tournament, I sit back and wonder how many visitors and friends will be on hand for the 3rd, 4th, or even the 5th tournament.

Congratulations go out to all those who over this past year, worked so hard to bring this tournament to the high level of success it proved to be this year. All of the bowlers, from all over the Southwest came to town for this tournament, totalling close to twice the number in the first invitational tournament held last year. I look forward to the day local tournament officials will have to limit the number of bowlers, and be forced to go to two different squads bowling. The day is close that this local tournament will be starting on Friday evening, just to accommodate the number of bowlers.

A very special congratulations go out to all the bowlers, whether or not you were winners.

Those of us who have been around Tucson for many full moons, can remember back when this paper, the Observer, was just starting. We can remember the short-lived days of the "Court" system, the opening and closing of different Gay bars, seeing the beginning of the club scene, the pageant system coming to town, and the growing up of this small community, in the Gay world. Now Tucson has yet another big attraction, one that will be here for many more years than I'll probably see, the IGBO (International Gay Bowlers Association) Tucson tournament.

Yes, Tucson has come a along way since the first day I stepped foot in the "Black Door", and "Sir James". Back then, Gay people were even welcomed in the Congress Bar. For someone who only came to Tucson to visit a friend some 20 years ago, I am very proud to be a part of this community. I am very proud, in some small way, to have been around to help this Old Pueblo grow to the high rating and status it now enjoys all over the Southwestern states and in all 50 states.

This community has grown to the point of having some of the best Gay bars in Arizona, a well organized and functioning leather scene, a well balanced and mixture of different clubs and a local government that acknowledges and supports the Gay scene. Do not get me wrong, we are not living in Utopia, but when you look at some other areas, you can be proud you are living in Tucson.

Now, on to something Bob Ellis and I have had to contend with from the days this Observer was published in a back room of the MacArthur Hotel - the RED PEN. Yes, a certain individual will weekly read the Observer, and especially my column, so that later he can point out different mistakes made by both of us (Bob E. and myself). For those of you that have read my column each week, you know my grammar leaves a lot to be desired. Still, this being #379 weeks of writing my column. I write as I talk, which at times is also not really up to par. Now, do not get me wrong, I do appreciate constructive criticism and do try to correct them as I go, example: 'goes versus go'.

This individual, who I shall call the "Mad Red Penner" (my own spelling), has over the years, helped me, both getting through Pima Community College, and his weekly digs about my column. What he sometimes does not take into consideration is, first off I write my column, run it through my spell checker, then it goes to Bob. When Bob types it's in newsprint type for the paper, he also runs it through a spell checker, but sometimes even spell checkers can miss something so simple. Also, Bob will, knowing my choice of words is not proper, will go ahead and print them as I've written them. My point is this - keep that red pen available "TJ", because I do enjoy your raking my column over the coals, in your own way, teaching me, or I should say, trying to teach me.

I guess that will be it for this week. Don't forget while traveling around this weekend, take along a designated driver. Just because the police department has transferred some of the officers out of the DUI department, there will still be many patrol cars out there this weekend, just looking for you or myself who try to sneak from one party or bar to another, knowing full well that we have had too much to drink to be driving.

TBBS: You would think after all this time, local people would be a little more careful during their conversations especially whenever I am close by and can hear them. Well this was not the case at the bowling banquet on Sunday. Moose was standing directly behind me telling of his previous night's adventures. It seems he has found a new toy. As the story was being told, I overheard Moose describing lying on a bed in nothing but his birthday suit, others around the room observing, while he tried the pump. It seems, as the story went, others got themselves wrapped up with his animation of proper usage, some even checking circumference, others not really believing what they were seeing. There was a lot more to the story, some details I'll not be able to print, so I suggest if you wish to get the full story, ask him. Moose stated he was going to go out to purchase one for himself.

News From MCC/Tucson

by Ben Carlile

This last Sunday morning was not a picture perfect Arizona day. It was raining, cloudy all day and the temperature didn't get above 65 degrees. It was a good day to just curl up with a good book and hibernate. But, the adverse weather didn't keep a lot of people away from church. Rev. Mita's sermon was on the right subject to make everyone in attendance glad that they did make the extra effort to be in church.

The Southwest District Conference of the U.F.M.C.C. will be held in Albuquerque, New Mexico next week on Nov. 8, 9 and 10. The Lay Delegates, both Rev. Mita and Rev. Perry and many from the congregation will be attending this conference. The Morning Worship and Evening Worship services will be held here in Tucson as usual. We will have guest speakers and many of our congregation will be taking an active part in the services.

On Friday, Nov. 15, P.A.C.T. and MCC/Tucson will have a Spaghetti Dinner at the church, 3269 N. Mountain. The meal will consist of spaghetti and sauce, both meat and vegetarian, salad, garlic bread and dessert. The organizers of this meal will start serving at 7:00 p.m. and will serve until everyone present has been served. We have been promised that there will be no long waiting lines and that there will be enough food prepared. There will be a suggested donation of $4.00 per person at the door, but no one will be turned away.

Realizing that not everyone reads Ann Landers' column in the Tucson Citizen which appears daily, I would like to pass along this bit of humor. Ann Landers ends each of her columns with "Gem of the Day", so instead of my usual "Thought for the Week", here is Ann Landers' "Gem of the Day":

A business executive told this story at a dinner to emphasize the importance of time:

One day an employee arrived late, his arm in a sling, his face black and blue and his clothes in tatters. "It's 10 o'clock," pointed out the boss. "You are supposed to be in this office at 9 a.m.

"I fell off the bus and was hit by a taxi," explained the worker.

"And that," shouted the boss, "took you an hour?"

A View From The Rock

A Commentary From Cornerstone Fellowship

In the Gay community, we tend to refer to ourselves as "Family", and often join together against challenges directed at us from others in society. Whenever those of us are told, for instance, that we are unfit to teach because we are Gay, or that we shouldn't run for public office because we are Gay, or that we cannot serve our country because we are Gay, or that we probably won't get our well-deserved promotion because we are Gay, we rise up in indignation and challenge those attacks. Yet, isn't it ironic, that whenever we are told by many of those same people that "God does not love us, and that we are condemned by God because we are "Gay", so many sit back placidly and accept it.

When people tell us that our love for one another could never be genuine, and that our lives could never be considered wholesome, simply because we are Gay, we rise up in frustration and tell them that they just don't understand. Yet, isn't it ironic, that when we are told that we "could never be accepted by Our Lord as "Children of God" because we are Gay, so many sit back and accept it?

There is another "Family", other than our immediate families, and the "Family" we identify with as the Gay community. There is a much larger "Family". That is the "Family of God", and no one on this earth can tell your or me that we cannot belong to it! In the Bible, Matthew 10, verses 29-32, JESUS tells US, "Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground, apart from the Will of your Father, and even the very hairs on your head are all numbered. So don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Whoever acknowledges Me before men, I will also acknowledge him before My Father in Heaven."

My Gay brothers and sisters, do you consider yourself LESS to your Creator than the sparrow? Jesus did not come down to this world only to die for the sins of heterosexuals. He came to die for the sins of all people. He came to make it possible for all people who would believe in Him and accept Him to become a part of the "Family of God".

I invite you to join MY family! May God bless ALL of you, and may you all find the peace and joy in knowing that you ARE loved by GOD!

A Commentary By

Christopher Geoffrey McPherson

Steven Carrington – Again

Sure, I watched "Dynasty" --the ABC suds opera which aired from 1981 through 1989. In fact, I saw every episode. Twice sometimes. But, after a while, it wore thin, like "Dallas" and all those other poorly written, wretchedly plotted trashcons before and since.

But I watched it faithfully. I even watched when Alexis took a tumble with Dex over the bannister. They froze in mid-air as the show's eighth season -- and the series-- came to an end.

This month, the loose ends were tied together --sort of. Yes, I watched the two-part miniseries, too. (And, no. It wasn't any better).

I will take my hat off to the series creators and writers who finally wrote some balls into the script for perennial wimp Steven Carrington, the first serious Gay character to be a regular on a television series.

Remember Bart Falmont? Who does? He's the man Steven sort of bumped into long ago in the dark days of soap opera history. Well, they're a couple now. Now, Steven and Bart cohabitate in a brownstone in Washington, D.C.

Steven Lobbies for environmental causes. Bart lobbies as well. (Tres politically correct!).

In one fabulous scene between Steven and his ex Sammy Jo, some guy referred to Steven as "The Gay ex-husband". Steven replied, "How would you like a Gay fist in your face?" (Applause all around).

Although nothing about "Dynasty" --then or now-- is realistic, it is nice to finish the story of Steven on an upbeat.

Gay politically correct, in a relationship with a babe. Way to go, Steven!

At Spes Non Fracta: See you next week!
